Spilled ballots, 149. Absentee ballots, 678.

Three Government supporters and one Opposition candidate were elected by Victoria voters yesterday, the Oliver administration thus maintaining its former strength in the Capital. Premier Oliver, as had been anticipated, led the polls with a total of 6,474, a majority of 1,190 over Canon Hinchliffe, Conservative, who was second in the poll. Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, was 500 behind the only elected Conservative, while J. B. Clearihue, M.C., with 4,305 votes, was the fourth choice of the electorate.

The election of Premier Oliver high on the poll was never doubted by his supporters before the election, and indeed was generally conceded by his opponents. From the start the returns from all wards indicated that this confidence was well placed, for the Premier quickly leaped ahead of the other candidates in all sections of the city. His success was regarded not only as an endorsement of his Government but as a personal triumph seldom equalled here. Nor was the election of Canon Hinchliffe a surprise, for during the whole campaign he, though a new entrant into political life, showed himself easily the strongest of the Opposition standard bearers. The Canon apparently secured a complete Conservative as well as a heavy returned soldier vote. Mr. Hart's return was seldom in doubt during the whole evening, though it was impossible to foresee by the first returns what place he would secure. Indeed, in the light of the first returns Mr. Hart told his friends that he feared he was defeated, but later figures soon changed his standing.

LEAGUE COUNCIL REJECTS PROTEST FROM GERMANY

Geneva, Dec. 2.—Germany's protest against acceptance by the League of Nations of what the Berlin Government deemed falsified returns from the plebiscite held in the Eupen and Malmédy districts along the Belgian frontier has been rejected by the Council of the League. In its reply to the German Government the Council says it finds no reason to modify its previous decision to accept the result of the plebiscite.

ONTARIO BOND ISSUE.

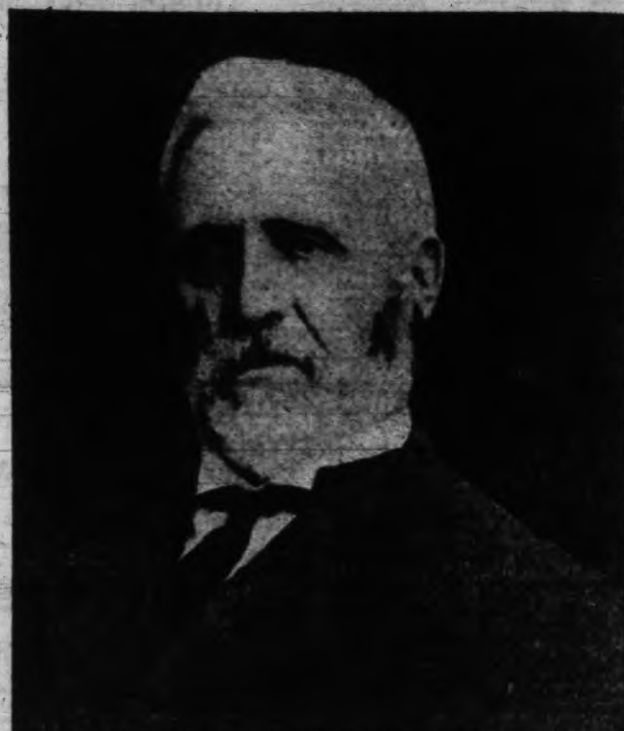

Toronto, Dec. 2.—It was intimated last evening that the Province of Ontario is about to issue bonds to the amount of $5,000,000 and that the details in connection with it would be made public on Friday.

No Changes in Covenant of League at Present

Geneva, Dec. 2.—A resolution rejecting consideration of amendments to the League covenant at this session and providing for a committee to study changes before the next meeting of the Assembly was passed by the Assembly of the League at today's session with but one dissenting vote.

Mr. Balfour presented the report of the committee on amendments to the covenant, explaining that the committee had found the moment inopportune for changes. The fact that no changes were recommended did not mean that the committee regarded the covenant as perfect and immutable, he said.

ELECTORS ENDORSE HIS GOVERNMENT AND ACCORD HIM PERSONAL TRIUMPH

HON. JOHN OLIVER

Premier Oliver's administration was sustained at the polls yesterday. Mr. Oliver himself headed the poll in Victoria by a tremendous majority—a vote which reflected not only confidence in his handling of the Province's affairs, but also the general esteem and affection in which he is held by the people of the Capital City.

SAY UNEMPLOYMENT IS INCREASING MAIL TO SAILORS ON NAVAL SHIPS

Reports From Points in Canada Received by G.W.V.A. Headquarters

Post Office Department to Forward Mail to New Canadian Vessels

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—(Canadian Press).—Telegraphic reports received by the Dominion headquarters of the Great War Veterans' Association indicate that unemployment among returned men is becoming serious.

The worst reports come from the West, Toronto and Montreal. In the industrial centres of the Maritime Provinces apparently the situation is not so bad.

From Regina to-day a report is to hand that married men are on the verge of starvation and that the Association funds are low.

Edmonton reports that single men following harvesting and threshing, are drifting in from all parts of Alberta looking for employment.

Vancouver reports the unemployment situation as very serious, as does Toronto.

In Winnipeg, according to G. W. V. A. advisers, men with minor disabilities especially are finding great difficulty in securing work, as they are not able to do heavy manual labor.

Montreal.

From Montreal comes word that the situation, although bad now, will be much worse, as a number of large companies are being forced to lay off men.

The situation is one which already has been taken up at a conference between G. W. V. A. officials and the Prime Minister, when it is understood, assurance was given that everything possible would be done by the Government.

BETTER PRICE SOON FOR VICTORY BONDS

Toronto, Dec. 2.—A. E. Ames, of A. E. Ames & Company, investment brokers of this city, in a letter to a company of which he is a director, advises against selling the company's block of 1923 and 1934 Victory Bonds at present. Mr. Ames states that this would mean an unnecessary sacrifice, and adds: "Money is tight in Canada, of course, but in my judgment the situation is fairly well in hand, and if you can carry your bonds for a few months you should get a better price for them."

KITTEN KILLED BABY.

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 2.—John A. Kesteven, seven months old, was suffocated here when a pet kitten climbed into his crib and went to sleep on the baby's chest.

$970 FOUND IN DEAD MAN'S BOOT; TO HIS WIDOW

Gardner, Mass., Dec. 2.—While examining a pair of leather boots at a sale of the personal effects of the late Jacob Haggstrand, of Finland who died here in 1914, a prospective purchaser stuck his hand into one of them and found $970. Haggstrand's widow in Finland will be notified of the find.

NEW TENANTS FOR B. C. BUILDING

Canadian Immigration Staff in London Probably Will Take Offices

London, Dec. 2.—The acquisition by the Government of the Union of South Africa of the Morley Hotel as a London headquarters is a reminder that some years ago Canada had an option on a building on the opposite side of Trafalgar Square, which would have furnished as prominent a position for the Canadian office as that which South Africa has now secured. The scheme came to nothing, principally through the objections of Lord Strathcona, who was resolved that the Canadian office should remain on Victoria Street, Westminster.

B. C. House.

It is understood, however, that the Canadian Immigration Department, which for many years has been located at Charing Cross, will shortly be transferred to a portion of the premises occupied by the British Columbia Agent-General, at Regent Street. This is the most handsome Canadian building in London at present. It is believed that the British Columbia Government is anxious to reduce the cost of its upkeep.

Seemingly, the late Earl Grey's scheme for a common Dominion office building on the Aldwych site near the Strand has been definitely abandoned.

Appointment.

The Times remarks that it is to be hoped that the South African Government will now make a definite appointment to the office of High Commissioner, vacant since the death of W. P. Schreiner more than a year ago. Sir Reginald Blankenship has filled the gap admirably, but the Times says it is hardly fair to allow him to be burdened indefinitely with the responsibility involved. It is pointed out by the Times that a general election will be held in South Africa in February, and the political atmosphere should afterwards be clearer and a new appointment possible.

PREPARE TO ERECT LAURIER MEMORIAL

Committee Directing Movement Will Meet at Ottawa and Choose Design

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—(Canadian Press).—Although the number of competitive designs for the memorial to be erected in memory of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier has now been reduced to four or five by the committee which has the selection in hand, it is not expected that there will be any decision as to the final choice before about December 10. In the case of the designs which remain after the elimination process has been carried out, the committee has written for further particulars and when these are received there will be further meeting to reach a final decision.

R. C. JENNINGS DIED IN TORONTO

Toronto, Dec. 2.—R. C. Jennings, for many years prominent in Canadian banking circles, died here to-day at the age of seventy-seven.

"Victory Will Spur Me On," Says Hon. J. Hart; In Post-Election Statement To-day

"I was appealing to the people of Victoria on my record yesterday as Minister of Finance and not on any promises," said Hon. Mr. Hart at his office in the Parliament Buildings to-day.

"And now that my work in the past has had their endorsement, it will spur me on to greater efforts during my present term."

"I want to express my thanks and appreciation to the men and women of Victoria for re-electing me yesterday. It will be my ambition, I assure you, to see that their confidence in me as Minister of Finance has not been misplaced."

Hon. Mr. Hart also declared that he was, especially pleased by the endorsement of the people because of the campaign that was carried on against him and the series of personal attacks made on him, some public and others circulated by secret channels, with the idea of prejudicing the vote of many, especially women.

"The poll proved that the people are too broad-minded to tolerate these things," Hon. Mr. Hart went on.

"My own victory as well as the victory in the Province as a whole, of course, is an endorsement of the Oliver administration and its financial and other policies."

Victory At Polls Assures Administration a Majority In Provincial Legislature

GIVEN MANDATE TO CARRY THROUGH HIS FISCAL POLICIES

HON. JOHN HART, Minister of Finance.

ARMENIANS NOW OUTSIDE ARMENIA

Driven Eastward by Turkish Nationalists; Hostilities Suspended

Tiflis, Dec. 1.—(Associated Press).—Armenian forces have been driven eastward by the Turkish Nationalists until the region they hold is entirely outside the traditional boundary lines of Armenia. As a result Armenia is reduced to a little Caucasus republic, such as was created by the Germans and Turks during the war. It comprises the districts of Erivan, Novobayazet and Etchmiadzin, the ecclesiastical capital of Ancient Armenia, located about twenty-five miles north of Mount Ararat.

Turkish Nationalists have occupied districts just to the west of this region, holding Kars, Alexandropol and Surmalu.

Hostilities between the Armenians and Turkish Nationalists have been suspended through intervention by the Bolshevik Government at Moscow and hopes are entertained that further bloodshed may be averted.

Conditions, however, are frightful in the district held by the Armenian forces. About 100,000 refugees in the last stages of destitution are travelling through the snow in all directions, and the Armenian Government is unable to provide housing or food, pending the arrival of grain promised by the Russian Bolsheviks.

The Turkish Nationalists assert they will not crush Armenia, but will grant lenient terms. These terms, however, must be in conformity with Turkish aspirations, it is declared.

Disagreement.

Reports that Soviet Russia is in disagreement with the Turkish Nationalists are accepted as true.

Observers say Armenia has ceased to be independent, and half of its population has been wiped out by war or starvation.

Workers for Relief in the Near East still are at their posts. The Turks have thus far conducted themselves in a respectful manner toward the Armenians.

MONEY RULE FOR IMMIGRANTS UPHELD

Montreal, Dec. 2.—The consensus of local shipping opinion in regard to the new Order-in-Council regarding the possession of a minimum of $250 by certain classes of immigrants when landing in this country, is that although the raising of the money qualification undoubtedly will have a deterrent effect upon westbound business, the Government nevertheless has done the right thing, having regard to unemployment conditions presently obtaining in Canada.

Latest Returns Give Liberals Twenty-Four Seats, Conservatives Fifteen, Independents Three and Labor Three; Two Constituencies Doubtful.

ALL CABINET MINISTERS APPARENTLY RE-ELECTED

Its policies, work and administration of the last four years emphatically endorsed by the electors of British Columbia at the polls yesterday, the Oliver Government will retain a working majority in the next Provincial Legislature. While returns from some sections of the Province were incomplete up to noon to-day, and the absolute vote has yet to be counted, figures so far received indicate that the next House will include twenty-four Liberals, fifteen Conservatives, three Independents and three Labor and Socialist members. Two seats are still in doubt. The Government thus appears to have lost some strength since the last general election, chiefly in constituencies where three candidates were in the field, and where Soldier and Independent candidates cut into the Liberal vote.

DIGGING TO FIND BODY OF SMALL

Toronto Police Have Search Made Under Small's Former Theatre

Toronto, Dec. 2.—One of the newspapers here said this morning: "An indication of the spread of police thought in connection with the disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, the Toronto theatre magnate, is shown by the fact that stage hands employed at the Grand Theatre dug in the soft earth under the theatre under the direction of Detective Sergeant Austin Mitchell, in an effort to locate Small's body. Heretofore police officials have held to the theory that Small was alive and probably away for a prolonged holiday, or held in captivity for purposes of ransom. The operations yesterday, however, would seem to indicate that the police have given up this idea and are fairly convinced that Small was done away with."

No Trace.

"The area covered by Detective Mitchell and his assistants is situated under the auditorium. Mitchell selected the spots where excavations were to be made and the delvers dug to a depth of two feet or a little more in several places. The whole afternoon was given up to the operation, but so far no trace of the body has been found."

"It is understood that the digging will be continued until the whole of the area has been covered, and the police have ascertained beyond a doubt whether the body of the long lost millionaire was buried within the precincts of his property."

It is thought, however, that, on account of its progressive policies the administration can count on the support of at least three of the independent candidates.

The return of the Government was scarcely ever in doubt as election returns poured in from all parts of the Province last night. The size of the Liberal majority only was in question. Indicative of the general results of the election was the return of every member of the Cabinet; the election of five Liberals in Vancouver, as at the last election; the success of three Liberal candidates in Victoria which thus accorded the Government the same measure of support that it had enjoyed before; and the election of W. J. Bowser, K.C., Leader of the Opposition, at the very bottom of the Vancouver selected six.

The following is a summary by constituencies:

Alberta—Major R. J. Burde, Ind., elected with 120 majority over Dr. General Money (6 West Coast polls to hear from).

Atlantic—Uncertain.

Cariboo—J. M. Yonston, Lib., elected.

Chilliwack—Hon. E. D. Barrow, Lib., elected 176 majority.

Comox—Uncertain; Rev. T. Manzie (People's Party) leading.

Columbia—J. A. Buckham, Lib., probably elected.

Cowichan—Keneth Duncan, Ind., elected, 117 majority (one poll outstanding).

Cranbrook—Hon. J. H. King, Lib., leading; few polls to hear from.

Delta—Hon. John Oliver, Lib., apparently elected.

Dewdney—J. A. Catherwood, Con., elected, Conservative gain.

Esquimalt—R. H. Pooley, Con., elected by 421 majority.

Fernie—R. Uphill, Lib., elected.

Fort George—With 27 small polls still to report, Mayor H. G. Perry, Lib., is leading by 80. Perry, 410; S. Cooken, Con., 530; Ross, Ind., 85.

Greenwood—Hon. J. D. Maclean, Lib., elected.

The Islands—M. B. Jackson, K. C., Lib., 78 majority with two small polls to hear from.

Kamloops—F. W. Anderson, Lib., probably elected.

Kaslo—Col. Lister, Con., elected, Conservative gain.

Lillooet—Uncertain. Conservatives claim McDonald elected.

Nanaimo—Hon. William Sloan, (Concluded on page 16.)

Small Nations As League Members Without Votes

Geneva, Dec. 2.—The sub-committee of the League of Nations Assembly committee considering applications of smaller states for membership in the League has decided to report favorably on the admission of Costa Rica, but unfavorably on Lichtenstein and Azerbaijan.

The sub-committee will recommend to the parent commission that a favorable report be made upon the proposition advanced by President Motta of Switzerland, which would provide that states not having sufficient importance to become full members of the League would have a special status. It has been suggested in this connection that they might be given seats in the Assembly for purposes of consultation but without the right to vote.

Dispatch of a message of gratitude to President Wilson for the way he responded to the appeal of the Council to act as mediator between the Armenians and Turkish Nationalists was proposed to the Assembly by Paul Hymans, its president, shortly after to-day's session began. M. Hymans also proposed that messages of gratitude be sent to Brazil and Spain.

Lord Robert Cecil, representative of the Union of South Africa, also suggested that thanks were due to the French delegation, particularly Rene Viviani, whose eloquence, he declared, had inspired "this meritorious effort to save Armenia."

Lord Robert warned the Assembly that difficulties were in the path. He pointed out that Armenia was snow-bound, and that hostilities had been stopped, but that a fresh outbreak must be anticipated when the snow disappeared. In the meantime resources and guidance must be furnished Armenia to enable her to become a self-supporting nation.

ARMY AND NAVY PLANS OF JAPAN

Tokio, Dec. 1.—The Cabinet yesterday approved the budget for 1921-22, totalling 1,562,000,000 yen, of which 728,000,000 yen is for armaments.

The navy budget is 498,000,000 yen, of which 144,000,000 is for new construction, while the army estimate is 245,000,000 yen.

Brantford, Ont., Dec. 2.—While attending ministers recited the Lord's Prayer, and just as the words "forgive us our trespasses" came, George Jones, colored, at 7:30 this morning paid the extreme penalty for the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Gies here over a year ago. Hangman Ellis was in charge.

CONSERVATIVES IN ONTARIO MEET

First Convention in Sixteen Years; Willison and Cockshutt Speak

Toronto, Dec. 2.—Going back in the party's history to the time of Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir John Willison, speaking at the Ontario Conservative Convention here last night, referred to the National Policy as having done infinitely more to make Canada a nation than all the constitutional changes of which the people boast to-day so freely. Sir John spoke of the selection of Mr. Meighen as Prime Minister of Canada "as an illustration of the national temper of the Liberal-Conservative Party, which party was the first to give the great office of Premier to a statesman whose home is in the West, and who expresses in his utterances the vigorous optimism of the newest provinces and the confident nationalism of older Canada."

Paying tribute to Mr. Meighen's abilities, Sir John said that Mr. Meighen's elevation opened a new chapter in Canadian history, and was a pledge of unity and co-operation between the industrial and the agricultural communities, and was the final guarantee of the equal authority of the West in the government of Canada.

W. F. Cockshutt, M. P. for Brantford, told the convention that he would prefer to see a Reform Government in power to a class Government, no matter what it might be.

While he represented a riding in which his own election would not have been possible without the support of workingmen, he said: "Yet I say that if they run for Parliament they should not run as workingmen but as citizens of Canada. He said farmers should not run as members of the United Farmers of Ontario party, but as citizens. The member who represented a class, he declared, was not true to the oath of office, which demanded that he represent all classes."

Mr. Cockshutt said he was not prepared to put in force more prohibitive than the people of the province were prepared to back up.

From the Floor.

Toronto, Dec. 2.—At the first Conservative convention in Ontario in sixteen years, which opened here yesterday afternoon with about 2,500 delegates registered and a few hundred more expected, the old-timers of the party stalwarts were given plain going to under the leadership of a prominent Conservative on the platform started to read a list of names, but was stopped by the delegates on the floor.

The selection of a leader of the party for the Province will be made to-day.

Captain J. E. Thompson, M.P.P. for Northeast Toronto, who had been temporary chairman at the opening of the convention, was elected permanent chairman.

LORDS AMENDED

THE IRISH BILL

Declared For Senate For Southern Ireland; Defeat For Government

London, Dec. 2.—The Government suffered defeat in the House of Lords last night when an amendment to the Irish Home Rule Bill, submitted by Baron Cranmore and Browne, providing for the establishment of a Senate for Southern Ireland, was carried against the Government by a vote of 129 to 56. It was explained that the object of the amendment was to safeguard the minority Southern Unionists.

Lord Birkenhead, Lord High Chancellor, for the Government, opposed the amendment on the ground that such a Senate must be preponderantly dominative, and there was no hope of forcing such a second chamber on Southern Ireland. He emphasized the Government's desire that the question of framing a Senate should be left to the Central Council.

Lord Shandon moved an amendment providing for a joint session of the Southern and Northern Senates, as a substitute for the Irish Council. Lord Birkenhead thought it better to discuss the subject at a later stage. Lord Middleton urged that nothing was more likely to lead to some settlement than Lord Shandon's proposal. This amendment was adopted, 48 to 34.

In a later discussion Lord Birkenhead, referring to Lord Shandon's amendment, said that the Council was an essential part of the Government's scheme. This now was swept away by Lord Shandon's reckless amendment. He doubted whether the bill would survive such a severe blow.

The amendment bestowing a second chamber on the Ulster Parliament was adopted.

CRITICISM OF IMMIGRATION RULE

Montreal, Dec. 2.—The Federal Government's decision to raise to $250 the sum of money which mechanics, artisans and laborers must have in order to qualify for admission into Canada as immigrants, has aroused the indignation of the Maritimes. Discussing the subject, he expressed his strong disapproval of the Federal Government's attitude. The progress of the country depends entirely on the increase of its population, he maintained, and if the natural means were not sufficiently rapid, immigration was necessary, and with miles and miles of prairie going to waste for want of cultivation, it was foolish to think of curtailing immigration.

PASTEURIZED CREAM AT LOWER RATE

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—The National Dairy Council of Canada has been successful in its application before the Railway Board for an order to compel railway companies to carry pasteurized cream at the second-class instead of first-class rates. The companies in some cases have been classifying this article under the classification of "cream, condensed or otherwise manufactured or prepared," which carries the first-class rate, the contention being that the pasteurized cream is a preparation of some kind.

KENTUCKIAN MARRIED HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW

Thornton previously was divorced from his present wife's daughter.

AMERICAN COLONEL GIVES FREE ADVICE TO RHEUMATICS

SAYS IT'S SHEER FOLLY FOR ANYONE TO SUFFER THESE DAYS.

Rheumatism can't be cured so long as your system is weak and run down. You must first build up and get strength to fight off the disease. Ferrozene cures because it builds up, because it renews the blood and dissolves the Uric Acid and the poisons that cause rheumatism. It is proved right here that Ferrozene does cure.

Col. H. M. Russ, of Edwards, St. Lawrence Co., one of the fine old heroes of the Civil War, was completely restored by Ferrozene. Read his statement:

"I couldn't get around without a cane, and then only with difficulty. "Rheumatism took complete control of my limbs.

"Suffering was more intense than hardship on the battlefield.

"When my doctor had done his best I got Ferrozene.

"Then came a quick change. "Ferozzone gave me comfort at once, eased the pain and took the stiffness out of my muscles.

"I am well to-day. Ferrozzone cured me completely. I can jump and run like I did forty years ago."

Be sensible about your case. If your present medicine is useless give it up.

Don't experiment again. Ferrozzone is known on all sides to be a cure that does cure. Why not get a supply to-day. The sooner you begin Ferrozzone the quicker you'll get well. Price 50c per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from The Cataract Chemical Co., Kingston, Ont.

BANK ROBBED IN LONDON, ONTARIO

Masked Thugs Got Away With $700; Pursued by the Police

London, Ont., Dec. 2.—London had a bank robbery when armed and masked bandits held up the South London branch of the Merchants' Bank at 3 o'clock yesterday. The thieves secured $700, and made their escape in a high powered motor car.

The manager and teller were backed against the wall.

The police started in pursuit after being notified of the robbery.

SAYS READJUSTMENT PROCEEDS IN CANADA

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 2.—Economic conditions in Canada are on a sound basis, the period of readjustment is proceeding satisfactorily and there is nothing for the farmers of the prairies to worry about, according to E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

"Canada is on as sound a basis as any other country in the world," said Mr. Beatty. "We are going through a period of readjustment, just as you are here in the United States, but there is nothing to fear. There is no danger of a panic."

Mr. Beatty said it was true that grain was being held in some instances because of the present prices. "That is due entirely to a lack of continental buying at this time," he said. "The grain will be moved and there will be a market for all of it."

Similar.

The Canadian Pacific President said that he believed that the conditions prevailing on the prairies were similar to those of the territory of the United States south of the border line.

Mr. Beatty was not ready to announce any construction plans for 1921. He said that the programme had not been decided upon.

"Western Canada is about to enter upon a period of unprecedented prosperity," he said. "Before that comes, of course, we shall have to get back to a pre-war basis, but readjustments now are proceeding properly and satisfactorily."

Mr. Beatty said that development of Western Canada would proceed rapidly with the return of pre-war conditions.

U. S. IMMIGRATION AND EMIGRATION

Washington, Dec. 2.—Immigrants to the number of 369,857 arrived in the United States during the first four months of this fiscal year, which began last July 1, records at the Department of Labor show. During the same time 214,705 emigrants left the United States, leaving a net increase in aliens in this country of 155,152 for the period.

Palermo, Sicily, Dec. 1.—Seventy thousand persons awaiting an opportunity to emigrate to the United States are causing congestion here. Only 1,500 can sail each month.

From six to eight steamships, carrying 10,000 average passengers, are sailing monthly from Naples for the United States.

1,142 HAITIENS LOST THEIR LIVES

Port au Prince, Haiti, Dec. 2.—A total of 1,142 Haitians met death since the beginning of the intensive campaign against the bandits of the island approximately two years ago, it was developed by the naval court of inquiry during its three weeks of hearings just concluded here into the actions of American marines in Haiti. This total included the ten natives alleged to have been killed by ex-Corporal Freeman Land and Sgt. Dorcas Williams.

Outside the ten deaths charged against Land and Williams, all the dead accounted for during the hearing fell in the 285 battles that occurred including the attack on Port au Prince in January, according to the testimony.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.
Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nine years. Now made in Canada. Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.
There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer".
Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacturing Co. of Germany. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried peppermint, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisulphate of magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, effervescent, or milk, but the pure bisulphate of magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist, in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which new causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisulphate of magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow, and moreover, the continued use of the bisulphate of magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way as long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE INSTITUTE TO FIGHT RED PLAGUE

Washington, Dec. 1.—The recent announcement by the U. S. Public Health Service of its intention to hold an Institute, at which health officers and physicians will receive ten-day intensive courses in the latest and best methods of dealing with venereal diseases, is meeting with enthusiastic responses from State Boards of Health and other organizations and persons. A recent letter from the Indiana State Board says that Indiana cannot afford to miss the Institute and will send several official representatives, supplemented by many unofficial ones.

The Institute will open on November 22 for 10 days, and will be immediately followed on December 6 by a six-day session of the great All-America Conference, at which the most eminent physicians, administrators, and other experts of the western hemisphere will discuss the best ways of fighting the twin diseases.

SAYS DE VALERA ONLY AMUSES NOW

New York Tribune Declares Americans Can Afford to Ignore Him

New York, Nov. 27 (Canadian Press).—"A disposition exists in some quarters to express dissatisfaction with Professor De Valera because he is attempting to organize, state by state, a society whose chief rite promise to be to spit, from the safe distance of 3,000 miles, on the flag of a friendly power," says the New York Tribune in an editorial dealing with the activities of Irish Nationalists in the United States. The editorial continues:

"Attention is called to the past record of the professor: to the fact of his Spanish-American descent; to the circumstances that after showing himself a friend of Germany during the war he owed his life, when taken with arms in his hands after the Easter rebellion in Dublin, to the truthful plea that he was an American citizen. He is even twitted for being above ground at all, for he widely advertised that he would not survive him, whereas the latest report from the professor's table is that he is still eating with great gusto.

Wanted Germany to Win. "These complaints show, it seems to us, lack of possession of one of our most national traits. It is the American habit to allow the foolish to go about as far as their folly dictates. Regularly in Philadelphia, never interfered with by the police, meets a society which holds that the deposition of James II in 1688 was an illegal act, and that the true King of England to-day is an obscure prince who resides in Paris when not dodging his creditors. Humor leads us to smile wholesomely at the agitation of agitators, especially those who seek to embroil us in foreign quarrels. As President Wilson might have said, we are too proud to become angry.

"Of course, a severe strain was put on American patience when De Valera boasted last Spring, when a question was up to him, that the Irish people wished and hoped that Germany would win the war. But if men of Irish descent can endure the insult thus given to the Irish people others can afford to ignore it and allow the professor to continue without molestation to pass the time.

FRENCH TO DRILL FOR OIL SUPPLIES

Geologists Confident There Are Large Deposits Near Surface

Paris, Dec. 2.—Petroleum experts are beginning to drill for oil in various parts of France. Geologists who have studied the soil and rock formations, assert that there are certainly large deposits within reasonable distance of the surface. Wells are being sunk on the Riviera, in the mountainous region of Auvergne and even round about Paris. So far no drills have gotten down deep enough to touch oil, and it is estimated that they must go at least 1,500 feet before tapping the reservoirs.

Seymour E. J. Cox, of Houston, Tex., who brought two specially built aeroplanes to France to compete for the Gordon Bennett cup, has become interested in the oil proposition and is leaving representatives here to sink wells for him. He is convinced that there is plenty of oil beneath the surface in France.

JAPANESE PLAN TO LOWER BARRIER

May Permit Land Ownership to Be Vested in Foreigners

Tokio, Dec. 2.—Revision of the existing land law of Japan so as to permit foreigners to purchase land in the Empire except that reserved for military purposes is to be taken up at the next session of the Diet according to the Asahi. It was to have been taken up in the 42nd session, but was somehow dropped.

The present law regarding land-ownership by foreigners was passed by the Diet in 1900. The date of execution of the law was to have been promulgated by an Imperial Decree, but the decree has not been issued until this day and the law remains practically a dead letter.

Delayed by Prejudice. The reason for this delay in the execution of the law may be found principally in the strong opposition by a certain prejudiced quarter, says the Asahi, which observes that there is no reason why it should be left as a dead letter, when it is a fact that foreigners are given the privilege of a perpetual leasehold and do practically own land in Japan. The anti-Japanese Americans object to land-ownership by Japanese in America and one of the reasons given by the Americans is that in Japan, too, land-ownership is not permitted foreigners. The anti-Japanese agitation in America, the Asahi says, is unreasonable, and it cannot be regarded as a retaliation for the prohibition in Japan, but it is not a wise policy to give Americans a pretext for objecting to Japanese owning land in America.

The law in question was passed 10 years ago and there may be need for revising it now because of the changed conditions in this country. The Asahi learns that the Government authorities have already completed deliberations upon its revision. With a few more possible changes of wording, it need be, the Government has brought the draft of the law to be presented to the Diet in the winter, this year.

Reciprocity Clause. The principle changes proposed will be to remove restrictions in the existing law as much as possible. The principle of reciprocity may be retained, that is, foreigners in whose own country landownership is permitted to Japanese may be permitted to own land in Japan. With the exception of grounds necessary for national defense purposes, land will be opened to foreigners to own anywhere. The restrictions from owning land in the Hokkaido, Formosa, Saghalien and other outlying districts will be removed in the proposed revised law. In Korea, land ownership by foreigners will continue to be effective as it has been in the past in view of the pledge given in the treaty of annexation of Korea, which respects the rights already enjoyed before the annexation.

ELECTION HELD IN JUGO-SLAVIA

Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia, Dec. 1.—The balloting of Sunday last for the National Assembly resulted in the election of 110 Radicals, 70 Democrats, 35 members of the Croatian Peasant Party, 40 members of the Croatian Peasant Party, 45 Communists, 25 Muslims, 25 members of the Slovene-Karolitz Party and 21 Social Democrats. About 50 seats are still undecided.

A Quick Relief for Headache

A headache is frequently caused by badly digested food; the gases and acids resulting therefrom are absorbed by the blood which in turn irritates the nerves and causes painful symptoms called headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc. 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup will correct faulty digestion and afford relief.

THE GOVERNMENT'S TRIUMPH.

Although the numerical superiority of the Oliver Administration has suffered somewhat at the hands of the electorate the result of yesterday's election is a clear and unmistakable endorsement of its policies and a tangible declaration on the part of the people of British Columbia in favor of stable government. The Prime Minister and his colleagues in the Cabinet are to be congratulated upon the magnificent support accorded to them individually. The people of the Province are to be congratulated upon their determination not to be caught in the election novelty net.

It is obvious, of course, that a very definite attempt was made to deflect the party vote to independent candidates. And how well the process succeeded in some instances is reflected in the defeat of the Government candidate by a division of support which is essentially Liberal in view and never would have gone to the Bowser nominee. Nevertheless, when it is remembered that at no time in the history of the country has there existed such a tendency to indulge in governmental experiments, the return of Mr. Oliver with a comfortable working majority will stand out from the political annals of the time as a triumph in which the Government itself and the people as a whole may share alike.

It has now been clearly established that British Columbia is in no mood to jeopardize her economic position. Her people have been brought to a realization of the conditions with which the re-elected Administration was confronted when it assumed office four years ago. In that short period the Province has arrived at a stage from which her outlook never was brighter or more hopeful. On this account it is a happy augury for British Columbia that she is to derive the advantages that must accrue as a result of a reinvestment of authority in the Oliver Administration to carry out and develop those policies which have contributed so materially to the well being of her people during the last four years.

The Government forces are to be congratulated upon the general tone of their campaign. It is regrettable that the same compliment cannot be paid to the other side in many important instances. Sordid local politics and subterranean attacks upon personal character have been more than usually conspicuous. By marking their ballots accordingly the people as a whole have reaffirmed their desire to have none of this sort of tactics.

It is interesting to observe how small a part the liquor controversy played in the final analysis. As we have previously pointed out it never was a compliment to the intelligence of the electors of this Province to suggest that their interest in public affairs would enthrone a policy of Government control and sale of alcoholic stimulant as the paramount issue of the campaign. Nor has there been any distinction made on the part of the electorate. The professed moderationist and the equally confirmed prohibitionist will not have to assume the cares and responsibilities of legislative duties.

But the most important feature of the result of yesterday's election is a British Columbian declaration for stable government. It will intimate to the people of this Dominion, to the money markets, and to the commercial and industrial world in general that this Province does not intend to substitute experiment for experience. It is a business guarantee and the investing public will welcome it by appropriate action.

MR. HART'S VICTORY.

In the face of very heavy handicaps and a variety of difficulties Mr. Hart scored a splendid triumph in running out an easy third on the Victoria ticket. His victory is a striking commentary upon the attitude of the people of his own city towards the policies which he has inaugurated and carried out in one of the most important departments of the public service. Not alone will the people of British Columbia congratulate themselves upon the return of Mr. Hart. The outside investor and the financial field in general will regard his endorsement at the polls yesterday as a compliment to the manner in which he has discharged an onerous task and a reminder to themselves that there is no danger of a return to financial stress in this Province.

VICTORIA'S CHOICE.

Despite the uncertainty of all election campaigns it never was supposed for one moment that the City of Victoria would be wanting in its recognition of service well and truly performed. By returning the Premier of the Province, his Minister of Finance and a new entrant into the Liberal legislative ranks it has placed its mark of approval upon the accomplishments of the Administration in general and upon two members of the Cabinet in particular. In its selection of Mr. Clearihue it will retain an effective voice in support of such presentations as may be made from time to time in behalf of his former comrades of the battlefield. Nor will the occupants of the Treasury Benches give the deaf ear to such assistance as it may be in the power of Canon Hinchcliffe to render in this particular connection by reason of his intimate relationships with the former members of the C. E. F.

It is a matter of keen regret, however, that Mr. H. C. Hall failed to obtain the necessary support to permit him to continue the excellent service which he has rendered to this city and community during the four years in which he has represented Victoria. It is the more surprising and regrettable that he should have met with failure when it is taken into consideration that every argument advanced in support of the Premier and the Minister of Finance applied with precisely the same force and effect to the defeated candidate. Despite this unfortunate phase of the local selection, however, Mr. Hall's practical fulfillment of the promises he made four years ago will not be forgotten in an hour of defeat to which such a wide range of political fare and much identical but divided thought contributed in so large a measure.

THE ISLAND.

Vancouver Island in common with the rest of the Province sees no occasion to change British Columbia's Government at this stage. Apart from the signal success which has attended the Oliver forces in the city of Victoria it is equally gratifying to note the victory achieved by Mr. Pauline in Saanich, Mr. Duncan in Cowichan, Mr. Jackson in The Islands, Mr. Menzies in Comox, and the Hon. William Sloan in Nanaimo. While it may not be permissible to attach the members-elect for Cowichan and Comox to the Oliver tickets it is common knowledge that Mr. Duncan comes of Liberal stock, and Mr. Menzies—who fought his campaign under the banner of the People's Party—always has identified himself with the party now led by Mr. Oliver. The loss of Mr. Stewart very naturally will be felt in the House; but the people of Comox may rest assured that their interests remain in capable hands.

IN VANCOUVER.

If there ever was any doubt about the popularity of the lady member for the City of Vancouver yesterday's vote polled by Mrs. Ralph Smith should have dispelled it for all time. Upon the occasion of her appeal as an independent candidate the choice of the electorate was so overwhelming in her favor that it appeared as if her non-allegiance to party had been responsible for that support. Her definite alignment with the Government completely pricked any bubble of that sort.

One of the outstanding features of the Vancouver contest is the return of Mr. Farris with such a comfortable lead over the Leader of the Opposition. It is noteworthy because of the fact that the Attorney-General was made the special victim of Opposition press and speakers who had set out with the one object of defeating him no matter how base a campaign it was necessary to wage. And that every possible tactic was employed to carry out the Bowser plan is shown by the public records of the contest. That Mr. Farris ran out an easy third to an irresistible first and an unusually popular second is evidence enough of the value placed by the intelligent people of Vancouver upon Opposition calmness.

NOTE AND COMMENT

December the second, the return of the Oliver Government; a bright and balmy day. A happy augury!

A General Election; the year 1920; every Cabinet Minister returned. A record for any Canadian Province!

Was it ever in doubt that British Columbia's "grand old man" would fail to make his double-header?

What a strange thing it is that those Bowser candidates who indulged themselves in turgid politics left yesterday's slate upon the toes of the electorate.

It is definitely stated in meteorological circles that Mr. Denison's lecture on earthquakes had nothing to do with the shocks certain Bowser candidates in Victoria and Vancouver experienced last night.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

MR. BALFOUR'S TREASURE TROVE

(The Westminster Gazette.)
Correspondents who say that Milton made the literal acceptance of the Fall, with serpent, apple and all, the foundations of religious belief in this country, ought to visit the Chambers Street Museum in Edinburgh, and examine the amazing treasure trove of Roman-Gaulish coins which was recently dug up at Traprain Law, on Mr. Balfour's East Lothian estate. Experts agree that the silver dates from 300 A.D. that is, was probably made in Northern France, and that it must have come to Traprain as the loot of some old Saxon or British corsair—let us say Hengist's great uncle, working in partnership with King Arthur's immediate forebears. Most of it is the ecclesiastical or the household plate of Christian or priestly families and one beautiful vessel depicts the Fall of Man in low relief, with Tree and Serpent complete. Apparently the Saxon or British pirates approved the subject, for the goblet is not cut to pieces and prepared for the melting-pot in the same drastic way as most of the trove.

WOMEN JURORS

(The New Haven Journal-Courier.)
We suspect it is with women in the jury box as with men—some will do it better than others. When Beecher was asked early in the crusade if he really believed women were qualified to sit in the Legislature, he retorted, "What women do you mean? Some are and some are not." We shall find it so.

WHERE IT STARTED

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
The custom of setting aside parks for the use of the people is a very old one. The Egyptians and Assyrians. Egyptian parks were small and formal, but the Assyrians laid out vast tracts of land for this purpose. During the Middle Ages it fell into disuse, but revived during the Renaissance. Civic regulation of parks is of modern times, England being the leader in that respect in the eighteenth century. Parks thus became a recognized part of every civic centre.

WHY

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
Does the chameleon change its color?
The principle of "protective coloration," manifest in the mottled skins of snakes, the foliage-like feathers of birds and the colors of some varieties of eggs, is primarily responsible for the ability of the chameleon to alter its color to that of its surroundings. Nature protects many of its weaker animals by enabling them to merge into the immediate scenery, camouflaging them so that they are practically invisible, and this protection of color is seen at its best in the case of the chameleon, which can alter its appearance as it moves from place to place.

This alteration in color is due to the fact that this variety of lizard has within its skin a large number of small cells containing different colored liquids or pigments, some white, some yellow and some brown or reddish. The changes in color are affected by contractions of the different parts of the skin and the consequent movement of the pigments. Thus, when all the color is forced toward the surface the chameleon looks quite dark, a sort of reddish-brown. When the pigment is not so near the surface, the color changes to green, and when the lizard is quite at rest, and undisturbed, its natural color is yellow. Study of the reptile shows that the mechanism which causes these changes appears to be voluntarily controlled by the chameleon, which, aware of its almost constant danger from more powerful enemies, seeks protection by merging into the background.

CANADA'S FLYING SCHOOL READY

Numerous Machines of Best War Types Used at Camp Borden

With some 1,500 pilots enrolled for training at Camp Borden, Canada's first military training station for aviators and their mechanical assistants, a description of the equipment in use there will be of interest to the data being gleaned from an article in The Canadian Motorist.

Included in the works left by the Royal Air Force, which use the camp for training pilots for the Imperial forces during the war, were eighteen hangars, with cement and asphalt runways, and everything necessary to the operation of such a training establishment. In the "gift" machines from the Old Country came 143 heavier than air machines and some eight airplanes, or Blimps, as they are more familiarly known to the service. The aircraft include a number of D. H. 9's and 9 A's, with 425 horsepower Liberty engines; S. E. 5's, fast scout with Hispano-Suiza engines; D. H. 4's with 375 horsepower Rolls Royce engines; Avrocs with Clerget; in addition to a number of seaplanes of various well-known British makes, and two twin engine flying boats. The Blimps are of the North Sea cruising type, and should be serviceable in this country.

It is the intention of the Air Board to keep pilots in touch with their war flying experience and training, and a skeleton formation of squadrons are kept on paper, and can be enrolled for service with fully trained pilots in short notice. To keep abreast of the rapid developments in modern aeronautics, the Air Board is to get from time to time the latest machines, particularly war types, from the United Kingdom. The latest heard of yet has been the Dragon Fly, which equipped with a 260 horsepower radial engine, can make 150 miles an hour at the surface level. Numerous B. C. pilots have already made their way East to go through their month's training for the Canadian Air Militia, including some local aviators.

JAPAN TO ENTER THE LINEN TRADE

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—That Japan is planning to enter the world's linen trade was the statement to-day of S. Mori, of the Japanese Flax Spinning Company, Ltd., of Tokio, Japan, who is here on his way home after having made a world-wide survey of the flax growing industry and spinning mills. The company, which he represents, he said, has erected large spinning mills in Japan, and was experimenting in Manchuria.

If these sources of supply were not sufficient, they probably would come to Canada to purchase raw material, he said.

HOROSCOPE
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1920.
(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Astrologers read this as rather a menacing day. While Jupiter is in beneficent aspect, Uranus, Saturn and the Sun are all adverse.
It is a sinister rule for all who seek to present any claims for services rendered or favors bestowed.
While this rule prevails they who seek political preferment will not be lucky.
Jupiter gives promise to merchants and manufacturers. There will be much buying, despite all prophecies to the contrary.
Although the urge to spend money will be strong at this time the judgment may not be good, for deception is usually strong.
Executives and all who wield power of any sort are well directed to-day. It is a favorable rule for college professors and teachers. Again the stars foretell honors and good fortune.
Saturn gives good promise to farmers, but they are to be careful for some important piece of legislation.
Mines seem to be under a little better planetary government to-day, but there is the foreshadowing of great changes in their management.
In certain quarters there will be a fall in wages at this time, but this will be accomplished by a decrease in living costs, it is prophesied.
There is a sign read as warning men and women to be more serene in their living, for the next few years will test their strength of mind and body.
Again reactionary tendencies are discovered by those who read the stars. These influences will be reflected in manners and dress.
Persons whose birthdate it is should safeguard themselves against loss. Travel and change will not be lucky. Those who are employed should be careful.

Children born on this day may have many vicissitudes in life, but they have power to overcome all difficulties. They are likely to be extremely talented.

COLUMBIA

An exact reproduction of the lobby and dining room of the Taft Hotel in New Haven was constructed on one of the large enclosed stages at Metro's west coast studios in Hollywood, Cal. This massive setting was used as a background for much of the lively action in "The Chorus Girl's Romance," the Metro special production starring Viola Dana in the role of a lady of the chorus whose specialty is dancing the shimmy. The picture will be seen again to-day at the Columbia Theatre. Photographs were obtained of the interior of the famous hostelry frequented by the under-graduates of Yale University, and the plans of the setting were drawn to comply exactly with the real hotel. The set occupied practically all the floor space of one of the three big stages in the studio and was complete in every detail from the swinging doors at the entrance to the two elevators, the cloak rooms, the desk and balcony. Much of the action of "The Chorus Girl's Romance," which is an adaptation by Percy Heath of F. Scott Fitzgerald's story, "Head and Shoulders," which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, takes place in New Haven. The hotel interior is only one of several elaborate settings built for the production. A large theatre interior and a cabaret are among the other big scenes.

VARIETY

The programme this week at the Variety Theatre features as the principal attraction Charles Miller's screen production, "The Law of the Yukon." It is based on the famous poem of the same name by Robert W. Service. As the title suggests, it is a story of the early days in the Yukon region when the gold fever drove many men and a few women of all classes to this hitherto unexplored section of the American Northwest in the hope of getting a share of the precious yellow metal. The story is indeed a gripping one, and the rugged frozen background alone is well worth seeing. The cast, which does not feature any particular star, gives an excellent performance. This seems to prove that a photograph, if it has a good story and capable direction, will stand on its own merits without a star—and "The Law of the Yukon" surely does just that. The character contrasts are exceptional and Mr. Miller deserves much credit. There is no need of telling the story here.

DELIGHTFUL PLAY AT

PRINCESS THEATRE

Mildred Page Players Score Triumph With "Tempest and Sunshine"

All the charm of the South of the 1860 period, with its courtly gentlemen, Southern "belles" and faithful darkies, found expression in the delightful comedy drama, "Tempest and Sunshine," presented by the Mildred Page Players at the Princess Theatre last evening. The contrast to the ultra-modern play of last week, "Pays to Advertise," proved anew the versatility of this talented company and a capacity house vented its enthusiasm in generous applause.

Miss Page as Fanny Middleton, "Sunshine," positively radiated happiness in her artistic conception of the part of the lovable heroine, winning the hearts of her audience with her easy grace and charm. She acted as a splendid foil to the tempestuous outbursts of Miss Genevieve Berkeley whose clever impersonation of the moody Julia, "Tempest," was an outstanding feature of the production. As the gallant hero, Byron Alden made a profound impression, adding to his laurels, his acting at the close of the second act when he refutes the allegations of Susan's perfidy, being a masterly piece of work.

As the irascible planter, father of "Tempest," Thomas M. Sullivan played convincingly, his sudden transitions from berserker rage to tenderness revealing the wide range of his art. Arthur Elton gave a clever portrayal of the besotted Joseph Dunn, who finally redeems himself after many vicissitudes, while Thomas Fadden, ing its engagement at this theatre, "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway" played all of the prominent cities of this country including New York, and everywhere it proved a tremendous success. Then, when it had apparently outlived its usefulness Mr. Cohan shelved it.

But eight years later—in 1912—the demand for its revival was so great that Mr. Cohan decided to again put it on. This time he assumed the role taken by Victor Moore, while Miss Sally Fisher handled the one formerly played by Miss Templeton. Again the piece was a notable success and again it played a long and prosperous season.

And now in pictures, it bids fair to even beat the records achieved by it on the spoken stage and Charles Ray has proven to be more than worthy of assuming the role so splendidly handled by Victor Moore and George M. Cohan.

DOMINION

Making hay while the sun shines is Mabel Julienne Scott's chief reason for preferring the movies to the legitimate drama at this stage of her career. This talented young actress plays the leading feminine role in George Melford's "Behold My Wife," which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all week.

"To succeed in pictures one must be young," explained Miss Scott recently. "The character actress, of course, plays an important part in every production. But her grasp upon fame is limited. On the other hand, while the majority of feminine screen stars are young women hardly in their twenties, the most successful women stage stars are middle-aged actresses who have several years of experience behind them. The chief reason for this is that the camera is more exacting than the eye. Youth alone can stand the close-up. When I am a little older, I shall perhaps return to the stage. But at present I feel that there is greater opportunity for me in motion pictures."

Incidentally, Miss Scott, who made her stage debut as the half-breed girl in Rex Beach's "The Barter," is again playing an Indian maiden in "Behold My Wife," which is the screen version of Sir Gilbert Parker's "The Translocation of a Savage." Mildred Page Players Score Triumph With "Tempest and Sunshine" ton Hills, Elliott Dexter and Ann Forrest are also in the cast. The picture is a Paramount.

"THE BRANDING IRON" NEXT WEEK AT ROYAL

"The Branding Iron" has long offered foundation for stories of the great west. Now it returns to the screen, but this time not as a weapon of the cattle rustler. Around it revolves a story in which brawny men of the great west reveal their hidden and their loves for poor little Joan Carver. Smashing snow scenes beautifully portrayed, action of the sort that holds, and romance of the good old fashioned kind offer effective settings for the splendid art of fascinating Barbara Castleman as Joan. "The Branding Iron" will brand itself on your memory long after the picture has been forgotten. It will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre all next week.

Examine Your Tongue

Is It Coated?

Call the doctor—what does he do first? Examines your tongue. If it's pale, flabby-looking and coated, he knows the activity of your stomach is lowered. Your overworked stomach is on strike. It refuses to secrete pepsin enough to act upon the food. Refuses also to secrete acid enough to enable the pepsin secretion to do its work. What's the result—dyspepsia, headache, sick all over.

How do you expect to be well, to look well, to sleep well, if your system is impaired?

Better patch up the weak spot. Give to the stomach the assistance it requires—or in other words try Dr. Hamilton's Pills which cure more weak stomachs than any other medicine you know of.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills put the kind of life into a weak stomach that enables it to digest and assimilate all kinds of food. No medicine could do more than Dr. Hamilton's Pills did for Wm. Martin, a well-known lumberman of Parry Sound, Ont., who says: "I consider that Dr. Hamilton's Pills make the best all round medicine. My stomach got disordered and all kinds of complications set in. My blood grew thin, my color got pale and I had the worst kind of headaches. The food I ate all disagreed with me and I was constantly bilious and suffering from acute dyspepsia. A wonderful change took place when I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they gave me appetite and strong digestion. I had no more bad dreams, no sick stomach or headache. I was in fact like a new man and will always recommend and use Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

It's the people who feel half-sick—sort of tired and depressed, for those who have any ailment of the stomach, kidneys or liver that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are sure to benefit at once. Try them, 25c per box at all dealers, and insist on having only Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterfield. In yellow boxes only.

CHIEF OF MILITARY STAFF COMING HERE

General MacBrien, C. G. S., Canadian Forces, to Arrive Here Monday

Major-General J. H. MacBrien, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., Chief of the Canadian General Staff, accompanied by Major Willis O'Connor, D. S. O., his A. D. C., reached Vancouver yesterday. He was received by Brigadier-General Ross, C. M. G., D. S. O., G. O. C. M. D. 11, and some of the local headquarters staff of this military district. General MacBrien, in his capacity as Chief of General Staff for the Canadian Army is touring the Dominion inquiring into military matters, and will cross to Victoria on Monday next, to pursue his inspections here. He is to return eastward by way of Prince Rupert and Edmonton later. To-day he is to be entertained at a luncheon given by the officers at Vancouver, the arrangements being in the hands of Col. "Jack" Leckie.

Interviewed yesterday General MacBrien told the press that the only new point in connection with military matters was the decision to use only permanent force officers and N. C. O.'s for adjutants and instructors respectively of the Canadian Militia. The infantry would be instructed by the company of the P. P. C. L. I. stationed here, and the artillery from a depot further east.

VOTERS FIND MANY OTHER COMBINATIONS

Ballots Marked Straight Through, Left Blank, Many Combinations

Instanting the rather hazy idea that some of the electorate brought to the polls with them yesterday, the marking of the ballots created no little surprise in many cases. Among the most comical were three in one of the wards that were marked "straight" the voter had taken the trouble to put a cross of approbation against every name on the ballot.

Other ballots merely "plumped" for one name, while some following the same line, although marking one name, four, three and in several cases, twice. Altogether the palm must be given to the voter who took the pains to come down and vote, and then turned in a "clean" sheet—without marking any of the nineteen seductive offerings on the ballot paper. To the 5,350 different ways in which the ballot paper of yesterday could have been marked correctly must be added these innovations, which possessed an air of charming originality.

Japan and Korea—City Solicitor Pringle has consented to give an illustrated lecture in the James Bay Methodist Church, corner of Menzies and Michigan Streets, this evening, on the subject of "Japan and Korea," the views having been collected by himself, while journeying in those lands. A silver collection will be taken at the door.

Social Personal

Of considerable interest to their many friends in this city was the marriage celebrated Monday evening in Grandview Methodist Church, Vancouver, between Miss Mildred Adeline Johnson, only daughter of the late W. P. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, 1034 Larch Avenue, Victoria, formerly of Deloraine, Man., and Duncan Kerwood Kennedy, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kennedy, Victoria. The pastor, Rev. H. S. Osborne, officiated. Mrs. Fred T. Jamieson, cousin of the bridegroom, attended the bride, as matron of honor, and Mr. A. Wall supported the groom. The bride wore a smart navy blue silk frock with fur-trimmed cloak, and chic velvet toque en suite. The groom is a former Ontario boy, and a few years ago was one of the most prominent amateur athletes in the Dominion. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will make their home in this city.

Bishop and Mrs. Harding, of Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, who are spending the winter months in Victoria, were "At Home" yesterday afternoon at Glencoe Lodge, Oak Bay Junction. Miss Kathleen Caswell, daughter of Mrs. Harding, assisted in receiving the guests, and presided at the tea-table with its pretty decoration of pink carnations. In addition to a host of prairie visitors, the callers included the Bishop of Columbia and Mrs. Schofield, Ven. Archdeacon Swoor, Mrs. J. TO-DAY'S JEWELS
The moonstone is to-day's talismanic gem. It is an exceptionally lucky stone, and is regarded as sacred in India. As an aid to love, it is invaluable, since it is believed to arouse the tender passion and to give lovers the power to resist temptation. It is curious that the natal stone of many of the world's great leaders of thought and action should have been the moonstone. This is the only, which, if worn on the neck, is said to cool the ardors of love. Moreover, it provokes discord and separates lovers, according to the old superstition. Yellow is a significant color to-day. It is the sacred hue of India, and is always associated with the moonstone. Hence it is exceptionally fortunate on this day. The primrose is to-day's special flower.

Model School Bazaar.—The children of the Model School, Mt. Tolmie, will hold a bazaar at the Normal School on Friday, December 3, from 3 till 5 o'clock, the proceeds of which will be used to keep a former Model School student in the High School. Fancy work, home cooking, candy and novelties suitable for Christmas gifts will be sold, and afternoon tea will be served. From 3.30 till 4.30 there will be games for the children.

Herbert Beaumont Boggs Chapter.—The regular monthly meeting of the Herbert Beaumont Boggs Chapter, L.O.E., will be held at municipal headquarters on Thursday, December 2, 1920, at 8 p. m. All members are requested to attend, so that final arrangements for the sale of work to be held on Saturday afternoon next may be made.

Help to Educate Girl.—The students of the Normal School will hold a sale of work on Friday at 2 p. m. in aid of a girl student at a business college at Camrose, Alberta. The students of the Normal School have been playing fairly good mothers to this girl, who formerly lived with her parents in Saanich, and are putting her through a course of business training to fit herself for life. The sale of work will be comprehensive, and include all the regular stalls, with a variety of novel devices that have been specially prepared. From 3.30 to 4.30 there will be games for children.

Domestic Products Sale.—Dainty fancy work suitable for Christmas gifts, delicious home cooking, including Christmas puddings, prepared from a favorite recipe of Queen Victoria, obtained from the late chef at Windsor Castle, jams, jellies, preserves and other good things which would solve the problem of what to give for Christmas, will be on sale at the Domestic Products stall to be held in the city market on Saturday under the auspices of the Women's Independent Political League. It is requested that donations for the stall be left in the care of Mrs. Johnston, 1129 Chapman Street, or at Poupard's fruit store, Douglas Street.

North Saanich Institute.—At the monthly meeting of the North Saanich Women's Institute, held at Sidney recently, the Park Committee reported that they had not been able to start work on the children's playground as the fence around the park had not been completed and therefore there was nothing to prevent any animals straying over the ground. The committee hoped that this condition would be remedied before Spring as they were anxious to get started on the work of planting trees. The dressmaking committee reported that two classes in dressmaking had been held with an attendance of fifteen and that the school trustees are having electric light installed in the school. The classes will be held there in future. A special meeting of the Institute will be held on Friday, December 3, at 2.30 p. m. in the Wesley Hall. It is hoped all members will endeavor to be present, as this will be an important meeting. Tea will be served at the close.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE CONFERENCE SET

Postponed Sessions to Be Held on December 8, 9, 10, at Provincial Library

The postponed conference of the Women's Institute of Vancouver Island will be held at the Provincial Library on December 8, 9 and 10.

The first day's programme will include addresses of welcome and greeting from the Mayor of Victoria, Mrs. S. F. Tolmie, Hon. E. D. Barrow, the Minister of Agriculture for British Columbia; report by Mrs. Watt, M.D.E. on "Federated Women's Institutes of Canada." There will be addresses on the second day by Mrs. Watson (Gordon Head Women's Institute), Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Chalmers, Mrs. Gorman and John Kyle, of the Department of Education. On the third day the speakers will be Mrs. Watt, Mrs. MacLellan (Cobble Hill Women's Institute), by the Superintendent of British Columbia Institutes, by Mr. Forsyth, of the Provincial Library, Mrs. Macgregor, Mrs. Padden. Demonstrations in parliamentary procedure and toy-making will add to the interest of each day, and the social part of the proceedings will include a luncheon from the Women's Canadian Club, and a tea and musicale, at which Mrs. King, wife of the Minister of Public Works, will be the hostess.

The business sessions will be open to members only, but anyone interested will be welcomed at the other sessions.

Women's Club.—A meeting of all women interested in the revival of the Alexandra Club for women will be held in the Alexandra House on Friday, December 3, at 2.30. As the L.O.E. will be held at municipal headquarters on Thursday, December 2, 1920, at 8 p. m. All members are requested to attend, so that final arrangements for the sale of work to be held on Saturday afternoon next may be made.

Chapter's Cabaret Bazaar.—Mrs. Curtis Sampson, regent of the Municipal Chapter, L.O.E., has kindly consented to open the sale of work to be held at the Criterion to-morrow afternoon under the auspices of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, L.O.E. A special attraction in addition to the usual booths, will be a Christmas tree for the children. During the afternoon vocal numbers will be given by Mrs. R. D. McCaw, Mrs. Lloyd Murrie and Miss Herby, with Mrs. Conyers at the piano. Miss Jean McIntyre and Miss Curtis will render pianoforte solos. At the cabaret in the evening, Mrs. Bony will arrange to put on a few numbers by members of the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society.

Social and Sale of Work.—The members and friends of the English Lutheran Church, Blanshard and Queen's Avenues, are looking forward to a pleasant afternoon and evening on Friday, December 10, when the Women's Aid Society of the church will hold a social and sale of work in the social rooms of the church. Useful gifts will be on sale and refreshments will be served afternoon and evening. Programme will begin at 8.30 o'clock.

JUNIOR CHAPTER'S SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

Daisy Chain Chapter Netted $100 at Mrs. Gallihier's Home Yesterday

The Daisy Chain Chapter, I.O.D.E., though a junior chapter composed entirely of young girls, is one of the most active of the local branches of the order, and its popularity was evidenced by the splendid success of its bazaar held yesterday afternoon at the charming home of Mrs. W. A. Gallihier, 914 St. Charles Street. Many visitors attended the affair, and the fascinating wares were quickly disposed of, the receipts for the afternoon amounting to the neighborhood of $100.

Mrs. Gallihier, the hostess, and Mrs. Edward H. King, regent of the Chapter, received the guests. Miss Gwen Hudson presided at the door. In the drawing-room a fancy-work booth was in charge of the Misses Mary Campbell, Kathleen Clay, Dorothy and Lillian Norris. The billiard room was given over to a stall for the sale of lovely baby-wares, presided over by Miss Kathleen Muir, while fascinating wooden animals on wheels, beautifully made and painted by the pupils of Miss Winnie's Industrial Art School, were sold by Miss Joyce Burrell. The Misses Mabel Rhodes and Janet Macpherson sold dolls and dolls' wear, and Miss Frances Bennett had charge of a button-guessing contest, and Miss Millicent Umbach, bean guessing.

Afternoon tea was served in the dining-room under the direction of the Misses Helen Macdonald, Helen Bennett, Helen Forman, Christine Ross, Mrs. Mayhew presiding at the tea-urn. Miss A. E. Cooke told fortunes by the tea-cups.

Throughout the afternoon, a delightful musical programme was given, to which Miss Mamie Fraser contributed vocal numbers, with Mrs. A. J. Gibson at the piano, songs being also rendered by Miss Percy and Mrs. McCaw.

PANTAGES PRESENTS ATTRACTIVE TURNS

"Trailed by Three" Serial to Be Followed by "Pirate Gold"

The top headline at the Pantages this week is a delightful web of beautiful costumes, pretty girls, six taking songs, with a mixture of humor and laughter. This magnificent production is named by the well-known producer of musical tableaux, Herman Becker, "Sweet Sweeties." The scene was very appropriate for the occasion, being staged in a candy shop. The plot provided fun and amusement to the patrons. The show was a charming cast featuring Billy Barnes and Jack Barton, assisted by Lillian Roberts. Helen Murray with her fine voice entertained the audience with some catchy songs. "Her Cave Man" was a fitting title to the play that Chisholm and Breen presented yesterday. It consisted of a comical romance of a city girl in the country, and the part of the country "rube" was well carried out by Chisholm, who, after all, turned out to be from the city as well as the young lady.

Colored comedy was given in the act, "The Black Gobb." The black gobb represents an American actor and he gives a very laughable discourse with a few witty songs and parodies. Dances from every nation and climate are staged and done magnificently and daintily by four dancers. The leading lady has a splendid voice and gives a few operatic selections besides the popular songs of the day. The scenic beauty of this production requires lots of long practice in the art of scenic makeup, also to blend with the coloring of the scene the dresses for the different dances, which are

"Trailed by Three" came to an exciting finish in its fifteenth episode, and "Pirate Gold" is being looked forward for as another very exciting serial in ten chapters.

LECTURES ON VOLCANOES AND EARTHQUAKES

Before the Young People's Society of the First Presbyterian Church last night P. Napier Denison, Dominion Meteorologist, delivered an interesting address on the subject of "Earthquakes and Volcanoes." Illustrating his interesting lecture with lantern slides, Mr. Denison showed photographic records of the giant upsurges that shake the bowels of the earth from time to time, and gave a very clear cut outline of the cause and effect of these earth tremors. During the course of his address the Dominion Meteorologist delivered a graphic description of the seismological instruments at the Dominion station at Gonzales, and outlined the work that each piece of apparatus performed. Photographs of the new Alaskan volcano, with the older ones of Messina and Vesuvius were displayed. Mr. Denison stating that it was nearly 1900 years since Vesuvius overwhelmed Herculaneum and Pompeii. Lava beds and other formations incidental to upheavals of the earth's crust were ably illustrated by the lecturer. At the close of his address, Mr. Denison was tendered a very hearty vote of thanks by the Young People's Society for his entertaining lecture.

ADMINISTRATION IS ENDORSED IN CITY BY THREE VICTORIES

Fight For Fourth Place.

The real fight of the day was for fourth place which, the first returns indicated, might be captured by the Government, the Opposition or an Independent. The returns first received appeared to indicate that Dr. Ernest Hall would be successful, with H. C. Hall, Alexander Stewart, W. W. Northcott and Mr. Clearihue all fighting for the position. Later on, however, Mr. Hall's chances waned and Dr. Hall likewise lost ground. The fourth seat remained in doubt until the very last returns began to filter in. Finally Mr. Clearihue, to the surprise of many, pressed into the lead, with Mr. Stewart, Mr. Northcott, Mr. Sutherland, Dr. Hall and Mr. Hall following. Mr. Stewart showed perhaps unexpected strength by coming fifth on the poll and beating Mr. Northcott, who was considered, next to Canon Hinchliffe, the strongest of the Opposition ticket.

Liquor Question Not an Issue.

Ballots from every section of the city indicated plainly that the liquor question had nothing whatever to do with the election of candidates. Large numbers of people placed Dr. Hall, a noted "dry," and Mr. Gillespie, head of the moderation forces here, on the same ballot, while the prohibition vote failed from the outset to elect George Bell, who was counting on it for success. Indeed, Mr. Bell's defeat became apparent from the outset, while for a short time Mr. Gillespie seemed to have some chance of election. Political observers declared that the electors were voting for men and were paying little attention to the liquor question. This was surprising to many who had thought that the recent plebiscite would have affected election and that Mr. Bell and Mr. Gillespie would secure a solid "dry" and "wet" vote respectively.

Labor Satisfied.

The vote polled by candidates of the Soldier-Labor-Farmer Party proved a surprise to many and probably fulfilled the highest expectations of the party. Days before the election heads of the party admitted that they had no hope of electing a candidate, but they claimed that the big vote they would poll would demonstrate that both the old parties were on the decline. Still, some members of the party held some hope that Mr. Christian would slip into fourth place. The four candidates of the party held well together during the counting of ballots, but finally, to the amazement of his supporters, Mr. Bell dropped behind Mr. Christian, who thus was eleventh on the poll.

After the Soldier-Labor-Farmer ticket came W. E. Peirce, candidate of the Federated Labor Party, members of which are understood to be little disappointed at their standing. Much surprise was expressed that Mr. Peirce could secure a higher vote than Frank Giolma, a returned soldier and member for Victoria.

Mr. Giolma apparently lost the support of the returned men and did practically no campaigning before the election. Even though his defeat was a foregone conclusion few thought that he would come third from the end, only two above Mr. Davies and some three hundred above J. D. Macdonald, another candidate of the Federated Labor Party, who occupied the cellar position.

Many Votes.

Voting in Victoria yesterday was not particularly heavy during the morning but in the afternoon, when practically all business ceased, the voters crowded to the polls. The active work of the campaign managers of all parties assured a big turnout and a poll as large as that recorded at the October liquor plebiscite. Weather conditions, too, helped to bring the electors out.

Little excitement marked the day's proceedings and no election fights or disorderly conduct at the polls was reported. In the evening, however, a large part of the population turned out to see the results of the poll and big crowds packed Broad Street in front of The Times and Colonist bulletins. Veterans of former elections said that greater interest than had been seen since the great federal election of 1911 was in evidence. The interest was of a subdued kind, but later on when the Government victory was conceded an enthusiastic, happy crowd cheered Premier Oliver when he appeared on a balcony of The Times Building and delivered an impromptu speech reported elsewhere.

When the Lights Went Out.

Owing to the large number of candidates contesting the Victoria seats the returns were rather slow in coming in. The final results were delayed by an unusual accident in the Ward Three polling station at Lillie's Garage, Johnson Street. Just as the counting of ballots was proceeding merrily the lights suddenly went out and the big garage was plunged into complete darkness. Considerable excitement prevailed and Deputy Returning Officer Young rushed to each polling booth and instructed the clerks to grab the ballots and sit upon them to prevent any loss or theft. For a few minutes it was thought that the extinguishing of the lights was part of a conspiracy to steal the ballots and "stuff" the ballot boxes. In the utter darkness, however, it was impossible to see what was happening, and Mr. Young thought it as well to summon a policeman. Constable Allen was soon on the scene and kept people from leaving the building. After about half an hour's delay it was found that a fuse on the outside of the building had blown out or become injured. It was thought that some boys who crowded outside had played a practical joke at the expense of the poll officials. In the end the lights came on again, whereupon the poll clerks resurrected the ballots and went on with the counting.

It was about midnight before the crowds gradually melted away and people, happy or disappointed, according to their political ideas, returned to their homes.

A FAIR WEEK.

A gentleman lately kept a meteorological diary of his wife's temper. It ran somewhat as follows:

"Monday: Rather cloudy; in the afternoon, rainy."

"Tuesday: Vaporish; brightened up a little towards evening."

"Wednesday: Changeable, gloomy, inclined to rain."

"Thursday: High wind and some peals of thunder."

"Friday: Fair in the morning; variable till the afternoon; cloudy at night."

"Saturday: A gentle breeze, hazy; afternoon, a thick fog, and a few flashes of lightning."

"Sunday: Tempestuous and rainy; towards evening rather calmer."

BELL SAYS SALE OF LIQUOR WILL KILL GOVERNMENT

Still Believes in Prohibition in Spite of Defeat Yesterday

Government sale of liquor will kill any government which attempts to carry it out, George Bell, defeated Independent Liberal candidate in Victoria, and one of the leading "dry" workers of the Province, declared to-day in speaking of yesterday's election. Mr. Bell said that, in spite of the recent verdict of the people and his own defeat, he still believed in prohibition and considered it the only solution of the liquor problem.

"I am glad that my friend Mr. Oliver has headed the poll in Victoria and that his Government was sustained throughout the Province," Mr. Bell remarked when asked what he thought of the election. "I feel that British Columbia is safer in Mr. Oliver's hands than it would be in Mr. Bower's."

"I still believe in prohibition as the solution of the liquor problem. I do not believe in Government sale of liquor and I think it will kill any government that drafts the act and tries to administer it, first because it will prove to be a failure in my opinion and, secondly, because it is immoral to trade and make money out of the weakness of people."

"Regarding the vote yesterday, of course I am surprised and disappointed. I thought I could depend upon 5,000 prohibition voters in Victoria because I was in the field mainly on this account. But I now find that they voted for party rather

'Imposes Serious Duty On Us,' Says the Premier

Premier Oliver was at his desk in the Prime Minister's office early to-day.

Although congratulations were pouring in on him from all parts of the Province, over the victory he had achieved yesterday at the head of a great party, the Premier appeared the most unconcerned person in the whole Parliament Buildings.

"The Government will accept the mandate of the people, not with exultation, but with the feeling that a serious duty has been imposed upon them," says the Premier in his statement on the election issued this afternoon.

"They will at once devote their energies to strengthening the weak points of administration and to a solution of the many serious problems which confront them."

Reasons For Losses.
"We have passed through four years of most trying times. First the loss by death of Hon. Ralph Smith, Finance Minister, then the loss again by death of the late Premier Brewster."

"The awful financial conditions left by the former Government; the enforced increase of taxation; the compulsory contraction of public works expenditure; the enormously increased cost of living, with the self-denial and hardship ensuing; the unrest following the cessation of war industries and the discharge of the returned soldiers, sailors and other war workers; the failure of the Federal Government to make suitable provision for the re-establishment in civil life of those who had been engaged in the war and war services; the present conditions of unemployment; the unsatisfactory condition of municipal finances; the operation of the Federal political machine; the gross misrepresentation of facts by our opponents and the multiplicity of candidates have all tended to cause the loss which the Government sustained yesterday."

Personal Attacks Rebuffed.

"I regret that so many of our good supporters have fallen in the conflict. They all deserved better treatment from the electorate."

"It is to me personally very gratifying that the attacks made upon my personal honor have been so effectively rebuffed by the electors of both Victoria and the Delta. It is also a matter of pride and satisfaction that all of my colleagues in the Ministry have been re-elected by substantial majorities. It is gratifying that the Government has been sustained by such a majority that bargaining for support in the Legislature will be unnecessary."

Thanks Women.

"To the lady electors of the Province I wish specially to express my appreciation of their support."

"I believe the election of yesterday will go down in history as the cleanest election ever held in British Columbia in so far as the operation of the Electoral Law is concerned."

"Experience shows some slight change as to opening polls under special circumstances is necessary. Let me say here again that the names of all persons not voting yesterday will be automatically dropped from the list and that re-registration will be necessary in order to vote at the next Federal election."

MAY EXPECT NO SUNDEN DROP IN PRE-PAID PRICES

Rotarians Discuss Market Tendencies in Light of Present Position

At the Rotary luncheon to-day several of the members gave five minute talks dealing with the fall in prices for the coming year. The consensus of opinion was that prices would not "fall," might recede gradually, but that even at that they would never get back to their pre-war level.

Electrical Supplies.
Ernest Hayward opened the address stating that in the electrical supply business the prices were still about two and one-half times over the pre-war figure, without much prospect of a drop, while glassware was rapidly becoming unobtainable altogether. During the war the prices of copper, steel and other material necessary to the electric business had risen some eight times their normal figure, and they were still far from showing any inclination of obtaining a pre-war level in the future. Altogether it was highly improbable that prices would drop very much in electrical goods, concluded the speaker.

P. B. Scurrell spoke next on the subject of "The Public's Position." He stated that the public had been likened to a hunter strike, which could be divided into those who could not afford to pay the high prices, and those who could afford to pay, but were out on a sympathetic strike—all aimed at not purchasing anything beyond the bare necessities of life. If this policy was long maintained half the manufacturers in the country would have to close their doors, and business would be so crippled that a panic would ensue. Already great losses had been sustained by the dealers in the falling off of the purchase of luxuries. If the "hunger strike" was to continue much longer a panic would be inevitable. What was wanted was a little patience on the part of the public, who should realize that prices could not drop as quickly as they had been built up, as the conditions were different. "To force prices down too quickly is to commit financial suicide," he affirmed. "The public should be fair-minded enough for those who can afford it to buy in moderation, so that prices will not drop right at once, gradually resume their former level."

Piano Prices.

Herbert Kent read a paper on the question, in which he stated that the prices in his line of business could not be expected to drop or fall flat, as had been stated along other lines. The cost of labor in the manufacture of pianos was over 80 per cent. of the total cost alone, and the labor market had shown no inclination to come down, and could not as long as prices generally were up, and as on in a circle. Shellac for phonograph records alone had raised 600 per cent. during the war, and that condition was prevailing generally in the manufacture of musical instruments. Increased confidence on the part of the manufacturer that the public would purchase in moderation would see a drop in prices due to the increased production resulting, he claimed. It was a question of speeding up the work, and increasing the general production, but even at that he queried if prices would ever regain the Utopian level of the halcyon pre-war days. Let us all hope for increased production, better sales, and better profits in the days to come," he concluded.

Effect on Clothiers.

J. D. O'Connell spoke next, taking the same theme as the previous speakers. "I can't agree that the day of high prices is over," he stated. "The retail merchants are sacrificing their goods, the wholesalers are loaded up with stock, which they cannot get orders for, and the public is not buying to nearly the same extent as even last year." The retailers, loaded with stock, have become panicky, and they are sacrificing their goods at a figure always below the cost of replacement. The public do not want to pay the luxury tax, and I consider the luxury tax is very detrimental to business. Slow business and the luxury tax are having the effect of making the retail merchants sacrifice their stocks. If we want to avert a panic in the country prices must be kept up for a while longer, and then the decline must follow slowly, and we will eventually get back to lower prices, but never to the same level as in pre-war days. Nobody wants to see the return of the day when labor got $1 a day, and that is what that would mean.

Hardware.

S. J. Drake, who closed the speaking on this subject, quoted from trade reports. "Nearly 200 years ago there were prophets, recently we have had other prophets, in the electioneering, now you want us to prophesy, as to whether prices will come down or not. After reading the trade reports Mr. Drake summarized the subject by stating that though in the hardware business metal materials, and raw materials generally might drop a point or two, the finished articles would remain firm. "We are not going to get scared and go to pieces anyway," he concluded.

J. H. Beatty, as chairman for the day, called for names for the basket-ball team. He stated also that the Rotary Christmas tree list was now opened, and in the hands of the secretary. After reading the list several members on the boys committee were heard, all stating that the public greatly appreciated the work of the club in the care for the welfare of the children. President Beatty congratulated the club on their success in aiding the Chamber of Commerce drive, and stated that much of the credit was due to the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs for their energetic support of the project.

"Will Leckie, president of the Vancouver Rotarians, was present as a guest to-day."

COULD DO THE REST HIMSELF

Wrote Mamie's mother to the teacher: "I don't want that Mamie should ingrain in grammar, as I prefer her ingrain in useful studies, and can learn her how to speak and write proper myself. I have went through two good grammars, and I can't say as they done me no good. I prefer her ingrain in French and hand painting and vocal music on the piano."

SAANICH POLICE MAKE VALUABLE HAUL

Captured 38 Cases of Whisky in Transit to Boat at Telegraph Bay

Charged in the Saanich Police Court to-day Harry Hicks and Wilfred Graham faced a serious charge, to the effect that they were in unlawful possession of a quantity of whisky in other than a private dwelling. Chief of Police Brogan found the accused, he stated, conveying a carload of some thirty-eight cases of whisky from their residence in the city to Telegraph Bay. At Telegraph Bay the party are alleged to have transferred two cases on board a motor boat when they were arrested. The boat is in the hands of the customs officers, the automobile in the hands of the Saanich police, as is the valuable consignment of whisky.

J. A. Aikman appeared for the accused, and H. B. Robertson for the prosecution, the hearing of the case being set over until one week from to-day, with each of the accused on bail, fixed by Magistrate Day at $1,000 each on two sureties.

William Todd, also charged in the Saanich court for being in possession of liquor in other than a private dwelling, paid $500 in fines for the second offence. He was warned that a third contravention of the act for him would mean imprisonment without the option of paying a fine.

R. C. Lowe appeared for the accused, and asked for leniency.

Chief Brogan took the box and stated that he had known the accused to be in the bootlegging business for some time. Challenged by counsel for the defence, Chief Brogan admitted that he had but once seen the accused deal with whisky, and could not swear to any other occasion.

Mr. Lowe pleaded guilty under protest, which had been previously lodged, in that the accused had spent the night in jail without a warrant for his retention.

In the Provincial Court two small boys were summoned for carrying 22-calibre rifles without a proper license, while the firearms were confiscated. Ignorance of the law was the plea entered by the parents in either case. In the City Court John Breen was fined $50 for being in possession of a bottle of whisky, while not at his residence. Frank Older was fined $5 for being drunk. John Hardy and Lee Hong, charged separately with vagrancy, were remanded on their own recognizances, and advised to make their departure.

THEATRE CONTRACT LET

Contract for building the $250,000 Capitol Theatre at Yates and Blanshard Streets has been awarded Luney Bros., Ltd. The theatre will seat 1,500 persons. Work will start at once, and it is now said that it will be ready for opening on May 1.

OBITUARY RECORD

The remains of the late Mrs. Mary Thurburn were laid to rest yesterday afternoon. The funeral took place from the residence, Mount Tormie, at 2 o'clock, and at St. Luke's Church at 2:15 o'clock, where service was conducted by the Rev. G. A. Wells, who also officiated at the graveside. The hymn sung was "Peace, Perfect Peace." There was a large attendance of friends, and many beautiful floral designs covered the casket and hearse. The following acted as pallbearers: A. G. Tracy, R. Scott, G. E. Davidson, J. E. May, R. Russell, E. W. Beads.

At the family residence, 308 Roberts Street, the death occurred this morning of Neil Cunningham, aged 68 years. The late Mr. Cunningham was born at Millagh, Co. Westmeath, Ireland, and had been a resident of this Province for 40 years. He was a carpenter by occupation. He is survived by his widow, in Victoria, one brother in Seattle, one sister in San Francisco and one sister in Ireland. The remains are deposited at the B.C. Funeral Chapel and due notice of the funeral will be given.

"Before taking Tanlac my health was dreadfully run down. My main trouble was indigestion, and I suffered misery night and day. I never seemed hungry, and the little I ate upset my stomach. I was nervous and couldn't get a good night's sleep. I lost thirty-four pounds and was going down hill rapidly. It seemed like the more medicine I took the worse I got."

"But since taking Tanlac I am like a brand-new man. I sleep like a farm hand all night and feel just fine all day. In fact, I'm a perfectly well man once more. Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

MARRIAGE DEFINED.

I'm thinking of getting married, dad. What's it like? "You had a job as janitor once, didn't you?" "Yes." "And you had a position as watchman once, didn't you?" "Yes." "And you worked a while as a caretaker, didn't you?" "Yes." "Well, it's a combination of all three jobs."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Birth of four sets of girl twins in one day was reported at Chester, Pa.

JOHN H. BERN, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who says his wonderful restoration to health since taking Tanlac has astonished all his friends, has gained twenty pounds.

"My friends are all astonished over my wonderful restoration to health since taking Tanlac," said John H. Bern, of 308 East Front St., Cincinnati, Ohio, recently.

"I don't know what it is, but there is something about Tanlac that certainly does the work," he said, "and I firmly believe if it hadn't been for this medicine I wouldn't be here now. It completely restored my health and I have gained twenty pounds besides. I have a splendid appetite now, and can eat anything I want without being troubled in the least afterwards."

"But since taking Tanlac I am like a brand-new man. I sleep like a farm hand all night and feel just fine all day. In fact, I'm a perfectly well man once more. Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life."

DR. HALL'S THANKS.

To the Editor:—Defeated, but not baffled, down but not discouraged, I congratulate my successful opponents. A positive force put into society never lost. I have nothing to regret in the late contest. The public have relieved me of much work, more responsibility and no little worry, and for this I must thank them.

I must also thank those who worked so valiantly and unselfishly, and especially thank the Press for their generous treatment and full reports.

My defeat is an indication that there is yet much educative work to be done in this community, so let us get down to business and prepare the public for the ultimate victory which must be ours.

HAS MAJORITY IN CRANBROOK

DR. KING IS RETURNED.

Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, wired Premier Oliver late this afternoon that he had secured a majority of seventeen votes in his constituency, Cranbrook, and that he expected that the absentee vote would strengthen his position further.

BRIEF LOCALS

Firemen Dance.—The weekly dance of the Firemen's Recreation club will be held to-night at the headquarters Fire Hall, Cormorant Street, when only those holding the new invitations will be admitted. Dancing will commence at 8.45 p. m.

Preparatory Communion Service.—A service preparatory to Holy Communion will be held at the First Presbyterian Church this evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. A. F. Munro of Duncan officiating. Communicants will be received by expression of faith and by certificate.

Women's Canadian Club.—At the meeting of the Women's Canadian Club to be held in the Empress Hotel on Tuesday, December 7, at 3.15, Signor Biondi, of the staff of the Public Library, will give an address on Italy. This will be the last of the series on the Allied countries. During the afternoon Thomas Kelway, tenor, will sing.

Criterion 'Carnival' to-night.—All previous entertainments at the Criterion will be eclipsed by the carnival which is to be held this evening, according to the proprietor, Louis Glasen. The spice of novelty will be accorded to the affair by the "Old Man Jazz" orchestra, which will give the very latest dance numbers. There will be no charge for admission but intending patrons are advised to attend early to secure tables. Fancy dress is optional but prizes will be given for the best costumes.

Parent-Teachers Meet.—The Parent-Teachers Association of Esquimalt will meet to-night at the Lampson Street School at 8 o'clock, when an interesting programme has been promised to the members. The library of the school, started by the Parent-Teachers Association, is now progressing well. In addition to the 1100 voted for that purpose, the president, H. Elliott, has presented the library with a set of ten volumes, "The Wonder World." The teachers and students are working for a Christmas entertainment to surpass all previous merry gatherings.

Langford Women's Institute.—The Langford Women's Institute held their monthly meeting on Tuesday at the Assembly Rooms, Langford. After the regular routine of business the members had the pleasure of an address from Mrs. C. de V. Schofield on social work and child welfare. There was a good attendance, and Mrs. Schofield's observations were of great interest to all present. Vegetables were donated by Mrs. Hincks, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Bales for the Girls' Friendly Society. Mrs. Schofield kindly offering to take them into town. The meeting adjourned. Mrs. Radford, president, occupied the chair.

King's Daughters Met.—Mrs. L. H. Hardie, district president, took the chair at the meeting of the King's Daughters yesterday afternoon. It was reported that the rest room had been open 26 days, and 2,557 people had been served, while the cash received amounted to $130.65. A report was given by Miss Leach, of the King's Daughters' Hospital at Duncan, which shows a turn-over that is the best in the history of the hospital. A donation of $25 was voted to the Church Sale Netted $500.—The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Saviour's Church yesterday afternoon held the most successful bazaar in the history of their organization, netting over $500. St. Saviour's Hall was well filled at 3 o'clock, when Mrs. Schofield, wife of the Bishop of Columbia, pronounced the sale open. The various stalls were as follows: Fancy work, Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Temple; plain and children's wear, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Nicholson; candy, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Kilgour; home cooking, Mrs. Coady-Johnson, Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Anderson; miscellaneous, Miss Saunders, Mrs. Bayliss; men's wear, Messrs. Coady-Johnson, Schwabe, Cunliffe and Horne. The takings of Junior Girls W. A. stall with Miss Johnson in charge, the Senior Girls' stall under the direction of Mrs. Rutter, and the generous goose in charge of Mrs. Foxwell and Miss Ross, exceeded all previous records. Afternoon tea and supper was a great success under the capable management of Mrs. Connell, Mrs. Gard, Mrs. Mansell and Mrs. Shaw. In the evening an attractive programme of musical numbers and recitations was given to a large audience.

CLEARHUE CALLS TO YOUNG MEN

New Liberal Member in Hour of Victory Also Appeals on Behalf of Soldiers

Joseph B. Clearhue, native son, Rhodes scholar and returned soldier, entered on his public career to-day as a result of his election yesterday as one of the three Liberal members from Victoria, by making an appeal to the young men of British Columbia to have faith in their own Province and work for its upbuilding.

Congratulations poured in on him all morning from old school friends, companions who were overseas with him and those who have watched the development of his career.

"The vote proves that the people of British Columbia are desirous of continuing the development of our natural resources without the disasters accompanying the wild speculation of several years previous," said Mr. Clearhue.

"British Columbia is still a young country and has need of her young men to assist in building upon the present firm foundation a superstructure of prosperity, happiness and greatness which will rank our Province among the greatest in the world."

"The people of Canada must have faith in their land and be prepared to exert their last effort in service to their fellow men."

Tribute to Returned Men.—"I know and appreciate the fact that my personal election has been in a large measure due to the desire of the electorate to express in some tangible manner their honor to the men who have fought for Canada on the fields of France, and as a returned man, I appreciate the honor that has been done me."

"The returned men are now going through a period of hardship, and in many cases are finding re-establishment a question of greater difficulty than many contemplate. Let us hope that the electorate on the whole will show the same appreciation of the services of these men by aiding them in every manner in a hasty re-establishment."

True Victorian.—"As a native son, I feel that I am a true Victorian. I have grown up and developed with this Province, and I look forward to the time when I will be able to turn back on my life and feel and know that my development and progress has been accomplished by the development and progress of my country."

"I deeply appreciate the honor which the citizens of Victoria have done me in electing me as one of their four representatives in the new legislature. I feel that it is an expression of confidence in the same honest and business methods of the Oliver Administration, who in the last four years have rehabilitated our Province and saved it from the disgrace of bankruptcy."

Photograph Society.—The monthly meeting of the Photograph Society of the Arts and Industrial Institute of British Columbia will be held in the Exhibition Room to-morrow at 8 p. m. F. Dundas Todd has kindly promised to give a talk on photographic matters.

Congratulations Begin to Pour in From Other Parts of Province

Almost everybody in Victoria last night wanted to congratulate Premier Oliver.

Even at midnight, after the crowds had left the streets, when he attempted to make his first inspection of the newspaper bulletin boards, he was recognized by men who rushed up and proudly grasped his hand.

The Premier with Hon. J. W. de B. Farris will go to Vancouver to-morrow to attend the celebration of Vancouver Liberals in the Hotel Vancouver in the evening.

Before breakfast this morning the shower of telegrams from other parts of the Province started. The Premier has been kept busy all day replying to them.

"Congratulations. You put up a clean fight and won," telegraphed A. D. Paterson, of Delta, when the result of the Premier's personal victory there became known to-day.

D. Hambley and J. Donnelly telegraphed congratulations from the Liberals of Langley, Delta, on the Premier's "double victory."

The Hon. Frank Oliver, formerly Minister in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's cabinet, wired congratulations.

"Congratulations on your sweeping victory and recognition of efficient and honest service."

"You did well, congratulations," W. H. Sutherland telegraphed from Vancouver.

The Premier had to look twice at the address of this one from Kereomes, signed by "No Sig," which he thought must have been meant for the Leader of the Opposition.

"This is to condole you on your defeat in present election. God bless Bower."

"Heartiest congratulations on your own double header and to my good friends, Hon. John Hart and Hon. Mr. Farris, on their re-election," came from J. J. Johnston, of New Westminster.

Other telegrams included those from F. B. Cassel, president of North Okanagan Liberals; J. M. Yonston, of Cariboo; J. A. Courtenay, New Westminster Liberal Association; A. E. Foreman, of Vancouver; J. H. Watson, of New Westminster; J. A. Buckham, of Golden.

CITY COUNCIL DOINGS

To put through the license reduction will require some tall hustling. Meantime lots of corn will be tramped on. The cure is "Putnam's," the old reliable corn extractor that has been curing corn and warms for years. "Putnam's" never fails, 25c. at all dealers.

NEW COMPANIES

Associated Securities, Ltd., of Victoria, with a capitalization of $25,000 has just been incorporated, according to an announcement from the Provincial Secretary to-day.

Other incorporations this week include: British Syndicates, Ltd., $25,000, Vancouver; Interior Cattle Co., Ltd., $5,000, Vancouver; Prince George Cattle Association, Ltd., $10,000, Prince George; Miners' Club, Ltd., $5,000, Princeton; Victory Club Co., Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver; Christmas Dinner Sales Co., Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver.

The Puget Sound Agricultural Society, Ltd., with a capital of $14,000, has been incorporated with offices in London and Victoria.

St. Paul's Bazaar.—St. Paul's Church, Esquimalt, held a very successful sale of work this afternoon at the Rectory, which will be followed this evening with a yard party at which there will be a musical programme and refreshments will be served.

Leaves for Nanaimo.—P. A. Rayner, secretary of the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada, has left for Nanaimo, where he will join the two naval brigade cadets, Johnson and Francois, who are going to Australia on the S.S. Canadian Winner which is now loading at Genoa Bay.

G.W.V.A. Dance To-Night.—The Women's Auxiliary to the G. W. V. A. will hold a dance this evening in the Caledonia Hall, the proceeds of which will be used for the purchase of Christmas cheer for the patients at Craigdarroch and Esquimalt hospitals. Runby's orchestra will furnish the music, and patrons are assured of a good time.

COMPRESSED MOTION.—"What was he pinched for?" "His father let him use the auto for an hour."

"Well?" "He tried to ride an hour in fifteen minutes."—Watchman-Examiner.

Only Six Originals of P.C.H.A. Here This Year

Lester Patrick, Moose Johnson, Tommy Dunderdale, Hughie Lehman, Smoky Harris and Bobby Rowe Form "Old Guard"

Only six members of the "old guard" members of the first teams in the Pacific Coast Hockey Association back in 1912, when the Patricks came to the coast and introduced the thrilling ice sport, will be back on duty on the loop this season, which bears out the old adage that in hockey, as well as in all branches of athletics, "youth must be served." When Referee Mickey Ion toots his whistle which will call the teams into action at Vancouver on December 20, only a few of the old players who started chasing the puck in this section of the country ten years ago will be on the job. In the intervening years many players have come and gone; some have started, others have been found wanting and have been relegated to the bushes, but six remain who appear good for some time to come in the puck game. Of the sextette, Lester Patrick, the grizzled Victoria veteran, is probably the oldest player in the game in point of service anywhere in Canada. He will don the spanglers again if needed. Lester piloted the first Victoria team, winning the championship in 1913 and again in 1914. He is the champion globe-trotter of the circuit. After heading the Aristocrats for several seasons he jumped to Spokane and took a whirl at managing the Canaries for a season. It was while he was in Spokane that he discovered Heck Fowler, one of the biggest finds in the goal-keeping business in the history of the game. From Spokane Lester traveled to Seattle and finished a bang up second in the 1918 series, losing out in the second game of that memorable play-off series when Vancouver defeated the Mets, 1-0, after a two-all tie in the Terminal City. From Seattle the veteran journeyed back to Victoria, and he will be at the helm when the Aristocrats start this season's campaign.

who have been in the P. C. H. A. since its inception. Johnson came west from the Montreal Wanderers and played with New Westminster. Lehman also was with the Royals that season and Jimmy Gardner, long since retired and now living in Montreal, was the successful manager of the Royal City champions. Gardner went east after New Westminster's franchise was transferred to Portland and has since remained there. Lehman came to Vancouver from the Royals in 1918, while Johnson went to Portland. Harris, who started with Vancouver, also went to the Buds, where he played for several seasons, returning to Vancouver a couple of seasons ago. Tommy Dunderdale and Bobby Rowe started with Victoria in 1912. Later Dunderdale was shifted to Portland and Rowe became a member of the Seattle team, where he has played effective hockey for the past four or five years. Johnson and Lester Patrick are the old-timers of the puck game, and it is doubtful whether there are any players who broke in with them down east years ago who are still playing.

Old-Timers Still Good.

"They used to say that a hockey player was all through at 23 years of age," observed Frank Patrick, president of the P. C. H. A., a few days ago, "but it's all wrong. I remember Russell Bowie, the former Montreal star, telling me when I broke into the game at 18 years of age that I was good for another five years, but I fooled him."

Frank played for many years in the East before coming to the West, and he only retired a few seasons ago.

Cy. Griffith and "Cyc" Taylor were well over 30 years of age when they quit; in fact, it has been shown that notwithstanding the torrid pace set in hockey that players are doing their most brilliant and effective work at the 30-year mark.

The Pacific Coast League includes many players over 23 years of age who are playing in brilliant form, and they're good for several more years. Of course condition is a potent factor in hockey as in any other game, but the fact that the Coast men can still set a merry clip is proof positive that they take their work seriously and are always in first-class shape, which accounts for the speed they show in league battles. This season's race is expected to be an interesting affair with the three teams in a close fight all the way from December 20 until early in March, when the world's series is staged on western ice.

Will Allow Hockey Clubs to Sign Only Ten Players

Teams in the Victoria Amateur Ice Hockey League will be allowed to sign but ten players instead of twelve as was decided upon earlier in the season. This decision was reached at a meeting of the Amateur Association yesterday in order to provide a better distribution of players.

In this city, where the amount of senior hockey talent is limited the decision considered that the limit was too high, and accordingly reduced it to ten men. Those teams which are over the mark will cut down, and this will give the weaker members a chance to strengthen up.

The hockey association and the Arena company have come to a satisfactory agreement, and the opening games will be played on Monday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

An effort is to be made to stage an opening ceremony in connection with Monday's games, and Hon. John Oliver, Premier of the Province, will be asked to face off the puck.

It is expected that close on to 1,500 people will be in attendance at the opening games.

TWO VICTORIA BOYS IN VANCOUVER RING

Vancouver, Dec. 2.—With Bert Forbes and Weldon Wing tagged for the wind-up, and Frankie Rogers slated to mingle with Harry Anderson in the preceding bout, both six-round racks, the V. A. C. card at Dominion Hall this evening holds more promise of action than any bill presented here this year.

Noodles Knox and Charlie Clark, the latter from Victoria, will thresh out a "welterweight" argument. Noodles' fighting proclivities are known to fans here.

Clark is reputed to be a willing mixer and able to assimilate much punishment, consequently the bout should be equally as interesting as the windups.

There are, however, many of the fraternity who will attend with the express purpose of seeing how Johnny Colclough, the local prospect, makes out in his battle with Roy Baker, of Victoria. Colclough has one decision over Baker, but the Victoria boy is said to have improved a great deal since that occasion, and is coming over absolutely confident of handing Johnny his first setback.

TED LEWIS AFTER BRITTON'S TITLE
Victor Over Johnny Basham Wants Chance to Lift Welter-weight Title

New York, Dec. 2.—Ted Lewis, British welterweight champion, and his manager, Charles J. Harvey, are expected to arrive here to-morrow on the steamer Celtic.

Lewis, who recently knocked out Johnny Basham, former British champion, is seeking a contest with Jack Britton, world's welterweight champion. It was stated to-day.

Winner to Meet Herman.

New York, Dec. 2.—Jack Sharkey and Joe Lynch, bantamweight boxers, meet here to-night in a 15-round elimination bout to decide which of them will meet Pete Herman, world's bantamweight champion.

JOE STETCHER, HEAVY WRESTLING CHAMP, IS TO RETIRE FROM MAT

New York, Dec. 2.—Joe Stetcher, world's heavyweight wrestler, plans to retire from the wrestling game, he announced to-day.

In preparation for his contest here on December 13 with Ed. "Strangler" Lewis, Stetcher has cancelled all matches in order to be in the best possible condition against the Kentucky grappler.

JUVENILES MEETING.

A meeting of the Juvenile Foresters' Football Club will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Foresters' Hall, Broad Street. All members and any boys who would like to catch a place on the team are invited to attend.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING FOX RAISING.

Some interesting facts regarding fox farming are forthcoming from the Veterinary Director General, Dr. Torrance. In an article in The Agricultural Gazette he says that the fox embryo, he says that the main difficulty connected with the raising of foxes in captivity is the protecting of them from disease. It is noticed that the female instead of giving birth to a litter of four or five at a time, as she does when free, rarely produces more than two, the average for the farms in Prince Edward Island being at the rate of one and a half. Individual fox ranchers, however, by care and improved methods do succeed in securing an increase of three or even four per pair. With a view to making this success more general, under the direction of Dr. Torrance, research work has been undertaken. Land and equipment have been acquired, two scientific experts from the Health of Animals Branch employed, six pairs of foxes from the island ranches furnished, and a small laboratory fitted up for the studying of the diseases and parasites that affect the animals.

LOOKING THINGS OVER

Fight fans will not wax very enthusiastic over the Dempsey-Willard match which has been set down for March. Promoters must be hard up for the champion to better about. One would have thought that Willard received enough punishment from Dempsey's rams-rams in the three rounds at Toledo to have done him for life. But the big giant evidently wants to have his head and ribs cracked a few more times. And he'll get it just as soon as the gong rings in March. In the East the critics labelled Battling Levinsky as a punching-bag for Carpenter. They'll have a hard job finding a suitable label for Jess.

What will the world witness next? The inhabitants of this planet have become accustomed to war and weird happenings, but it is doubtful if any one ever expected the staid and honorable pastime of an ancient game to cross arms with one another. However, they have decided to go to the mat, and a dispatch from New York says that a "bitter war is freely predicted." The Western Golf Association is trying to bunker the United States Golf Association. It's the same old trouble, the West has grown so rapidly and has a broader vision, that it hates to accept the dictates of the East. The Western Golf Association proposes to invade the East and wrestle control away from the present governing body.

Racing came back to Canada this year in such abundant measure as to eclipse all former records and in all departments. Especially was the gain in money distributed among winning owners noteworthy. The total was the huge sum of $1,809,285, the greatest previous record in that regard being $906,185 in 1916. This would have been beaten in 1917 but for the order-in-council, which suddenly stopped racing in Canada that year when about half of the scheduled meetings remained to be carried out. The lavish money provision for 1920 was rewarded with such a responsive attendance that the Canadian Racing Associations enjoyed a high measure of prosperity despite the heavy daily tax levied by the government. The racing was up to a high standard in the East, and from time to time the best horses on this side of the Atlantic were among those seen in action. Five racing clubs averaged in excess of $10,000 in the matter of daily distribution. Kenilworth Park leading because of the $80,000 in money and plate given for the famous clashing of Man o'War and Sir Barton. But for that race Kenilworth would have been third to Windsor and Woodbine.

The referee of to-day gets so many more kicks than pawns of praise that it is good to hear at least one player plead the cause of the "Knight of the Whistle." When that player is Tom Clay, the international fullback of Tottenham Hotspur, a good word spoken on behalf of the "ref" is all the more refreshing. "The referee has a rotten job," says Clay to players, officials and supporters alike, "so give him your support always. If spectators would 'come down' as heavily on the members of the home team who stoop to doubtful tactics as they do on members of the visiting side, very soon we should hear the last word about foul play," says Clay. It is impossible for a referee to keep up with the play always, during a fast game, and he therefore falls into "the off-side trap" and gives a wrong decision. To remove this source of trouble Clay suggests that the linesmen, who more often than not are in a better position to give a correct decision, should give the off-side ruling. Clay also reminds referees that players don't like to be treated like a lot of naughty boys and that a quiet word has more effect than a lecture before the crowds. To the spectators Clay enters a request that they try to believe that the referee is not always wrong when he gives a decision against the side they want to win.

Rugby Enthusiasts Do Not Want to Let Opportunity Slip by of Seeing Famous Team in Action; A Canvass

Several rugby enthusiasts in this city who are anxious to see the combined California-Stanford rugby team in action here against the local rep fifteen, have decided to launch a campaign to-morrow which will have as its objective the raising of $500, the amount of the guaranteed asked by the Californians.

At its regular weekly meeting last Monday night the Victoria Rugby Union refused to consider the proposition submitted by the Californians. The meeting was prepared to split the gates but to have nothing to do with the guarantee. Vancouver has guaranteed the visitors $1,500 for three games and the Victoria rugby supporters feel that the Capital City should be able to guarantee one-third that amount.

Will Canvass.

To-morrow afternoon the rugby supporters who are anxious to have the Californians visit this city will call on all business men for contributions. If one thousand people subscribed fifty cents each the guarantee would be met. The canvassers feel quite confident that the amount will be raised. They point out that only promises will be taken, and with these the canvassers will go before the Victoria Rugby Union next Monday night and show them that the guarantee can be met and accordingly ask that an invitation be sent to the Californians to play here.

Since the Rugby Union turned down the proposition to have the Californians come here there has been considerable adverse comment among players and followers of the game, who are anxious to see the famous team in action. This rep fifteen holds the Olympic record and is said to be a pretty machine in action.

Rugby Game Arranged.

Arrangements have been completed to give the Victoria rep team a game at Bay on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This rep fifteen will be opposed by a squad to be known as the "Blues," mostly youngsters, who are keen to know the game well, have speed and are anxious to give the rep team a game. By the way, some of them talk the rep team will have to be at full strength or there will be a repetition of the score in the McKeechup game.

The team which has been selected to oppose the "reps" is as follows: Full back, Ken Macdonald; three-quarters, Matson, Goodacre, Huxtable and Ker; five-eighths, Chaloner; half-backs, Anderson and Parker; forwards, Honeychurch, Parfitt, McEae, E. McCallum, John Johnson, Chadwick and Brynolfson. Reserve forwards, Lowe and Heigson; reserve half, Holmes.

To Decide Question.

Vancouver, Dec. 2.—Rugby players will attend a meeting of the Union to be held at the Rowing Club to-day for the purpose of discussing the amateur standing of players.

"At a recent meeting of the provincial body it was decided to ask the players to vote on the question as to whether professionals in sports other than rugby should be allowed to play the game. Bill Poupore states that it is the request of the Union that all players should attend to present their views on this most important subject."

THE PROPER SIZE.

"There," said an old crony, to a friend to whom he was showing the sights of a Scottish town. "That is the statue of Balle Blank."

"Is it no' a guid size, bigger than life-size, tho'?" queried the other.

"Oh! ay, it's a' that, but it's no' a bit bigger than the Balle thoct himself."—Tit-Bits.

AMATEUR HOCKEYISTS NOW IN BIG DEMAND

N. H. A. Trying to Enlarge Circuit to Six Clubs; Scout-ing For New Material

Montreal, Dec. 2.—Wholesale bids for amateur hockey stars yesterday followed the effort of the National Hockey League to accommodate those who seek franchise rights, and enlarge the four-team circuit to one of six clubs.

George Kennedy of the Canadiens is after half-a-dozen promising players from the now-defunct Montreal league and other amateur organizations.

There is a strong chance that big Harry Mummery, who was with the Canadiens when last they won the title, will line up with the Habitanes again this year. Mummery, one of the players going to Hamilton along with the Quebec franchise. Meantime, Goldie Progers and Joe Matte, who belong to Canadiens, want to play in Hamilton. Thomas wants Progers as captain and Matte as assistant, so he proposes that Hamilton give Malone and McDonald in exchange for Progers and Matte. Kennedy, however, wants a defense player, and is really badly in need of someone, so he has proposed that Hamilton give him Mummery and McDonald as the latter is working in Montreal.

CROWDS WAIT

UNTIL MIDNIGHT TO

CHEER PREMIER

CANON IS ACCORDED

GREAT OVATIONS

Premier Oliver was given a big reception shortly before midnight by the crowds in Broad Street when he appeared at a window in the second storey of the Times Building.

"The best is none too good for the whole of the people of Victoria," said the Premier, after expressing his appreciation of the victory accorded him
by the Province.

"I regret very much that Henry Hall has gone down to defeat. I assure you that there has been no member of the Legislature who has worked more faithfully in the interests of the Liberals than Henry Hall. I believe his defeat to-day is only of a temporary nature.

"I believe that the returned soldier will have a splendid representative in Mr. Clearhue. I don't think the returned soldier or any other citizen will have cause to regret his election.

Crowds Stay Until Last

When the Premier spoke returns from the Province indicated that the Government had won a clear victory.
The 11 p.m. compilation put out by The Times gave 21 Liberals, 12 Conservatives, 2 Independents, 2 Labor and 1 Socialist.

Broad Street around The Times
office was jammed from building to building from 7.30 o'clock, when the returns started to come in, until after the Premier spoke and the bulletins announced "Good Night" just before the last street cars left town.

Everybody wanted to hear how Vancouver had gone, and there was great cheering when the 11 o'clock bulletin of the Canadian Press was put out placing all Liberals in the lead and Mr. Bowser seventh, on the basis of six polls out of twelve.

Searchlights Light Up Crowd

Huge searchlights on the top of the building across the road illuminated the crowds in the street and the bulletins in The Times windows.
Although it was slightly damp, men and women stood for hours in a solid mass packed one against the other, straining their necks to get a glimpse of the latest bulletin.

Running results were issued from The Times office to Liberal headquarters, the Army and Navy Veterans headquarters and other organizations.

Liberals Get Next Best

When the city finals were made known at Liberal headquarters there was great cheering.

"I am pleased to know that while we didn't get exactly what we wanted
we got the next best thing," said William M. Ivel, president of the Liberal Association.

"The independent vote prevented a clean sweep for the Liberals. The confusion of names was the factor that kept out Henry C. Hall, as many persons undoubtedly voted for the first Hall they came to on the ballot and this happened to be Dr. Ernest Hall."

Veterans Cheer Canon

Great enthusiasm was manifested
at the Army and Navy Veterans' Club over the election of Canon Hinchcliffe to the Conservative ticket while the other three Conservatives were left far behind.

"If there is anything I can do for you in the Legislature, rest assured that I will do it to the best of my ability," said the Canon, standing on a billboard table.

"I will have no running mates there from the city. I shall at any rate be on the side that asks questions and in that capacity I may be of service. I won't be quiet in the Legislature. I will not be afraid to ask questions and if there are some things that seem difficult to find out about, I shall find out why.

Beer for Workmen

"I know you want to know my stand on the workmen's beer. I was raised on a farm where we made our own beer and had it on the table every day. I hold that if the workingman wants his beer, he has a right to have it. I want to be as fair and honest as I can, and you must recognize that it will not be my duty to draft policies but to criticize them
when I believe they are wrong."

To Work for Victoria

A few minutes later the Canon was greeted at Conservative headquarters.
"I can assure you that I will at all times do my very best to show that this responsibility was not misplaced," he said. "I intend to work for Victoria all the time and I shall never hesitate to put forward my best effort in bringing about legislation in the best interests of this city even though the result of the vote throughout the Province may confine me to the role of critic.

"My one regret is that, so far as Victoria is concerned, I must play the game alone. I will have no running mates from the Conservative Party."

Enjoyed Campaign

W. W. Northcott did not show up at Conservative headquarters for the speech-making. He discussed the result with a newspaper reporter, however.

"We've had our fun, anyway," said
Mr. Northcott. "We made a hard fight and a clean fight and, while defeated, we go down smiling. Under different circumstances the Conservatives undoubtedly would have made a much better showing. There is no doubt that the independent vote cut heavily into the Conservative totals."

To Tell Wife

The Canon left to-day for North Vancouver where his wife lives, as he is anxious to tell her personally of his great victory and how it was achieved. He intends to stay in North Vancouver for several days to recover from the strain of the campaign. Then he will come to Victoria to prepare himself to represent this city in the Legislature.

Another Licking

"This isn't the first licking I've had and I'm not worried about it," said Alexander Stewart. "Taking it as a whole, Mr. Oliver may have won, but he will have no bed of roses to play in. We are not ashamed of the campaign we fought there was no slinging of mud, and we looked after our own affairs."

Respect For Clearhue

"Three of us go down to defeat, but we are all happy to know that one of us made a splendid record, and has proved beyond a doubt his tremendous popularity and the faith Victorians have in him," said R. Ross Sutherland.

"I frankly admit that there is no man I would rather see taking the place of one of our candidates than Mr. Clearhue, who is the city's new fourth member. I have the greatest respect for him."

"Loss Only Temporary"

"This is only a temporary loss," said J. O. Dunford, president of the Victoria Conservative Association.
"The campaign ended yesterday, but a new one commences to-morrow, and we will start organizing for it without delay. The Liberal majority will be weak, and that means another election in a short time.

"I do not believe that Victoria ever had men of such splendid calibre on a single party ticket as the Conservatives had this time, and while I believe that the defeat of three of them will mean a big loss to Victoria, I am proud of the splendid showing made by Canon Hinchcliffe, and predict for him a notable record
in the House."

"The campaign was fought fairly and above board, and if it had been a straight fight between the two parties, without such a large number of independents in the field, I am sure we would have won hands down."

R. F. Green Gloomy

"Disappointment with the Oliver Government was based on a great many considerations, but particularly on the lack of a broad, clear-visioned policy of developing this Province's natural resources," said R. F. Green, M. P. for West Kootenay, and an old-time Conservative leader in this Province. Mr. Green was very pessimistic.

"I had expected," he said, "that a large number of Conservatives would make the grade, and I was particularly surprised at the result in Vancouver and Victoria, where I expected the Conservatives would be in the majority."

"There can be no question but that the Province has been shackled to a large extent during the past four years by the Government's failure to take hold of the big issues confronting it respecting industrial expansion. This condition has had the effect of holding the Province back from attaining the high position which it should occupy among the provinces of the Empire on the basis of its natural wealth. Indecision on the part of the Government and a general tendency in the legislation it has passed to discourage industrial development has been a tremendous handicap."

"Mr. Oliver and his colleagues must now realize, however, that this policy has been popular with the great majority of the people of the Province, and if they find themselves another term this vote will no doubt have its effect in inducing them to alter their course of action. A strong Opposition will assist in hastening this change, which will be for the good of the country as a whole."

SOME NEW MEMBERS

Alderman James Ramsey (Vancouver)

James Ramsey is the son of an Aberdeen farmer, and came to Canada as an immigrant lad thirty-five years ago. He remained in the East for five years, but has spent the last thirty of them in British Columbia. In Toronto he engaged in the confectionery business, and later when he came to Victoria he established a similar business. In Vancouver, he is known as the President of the Ramsey Bros. Co. Limited, and is a large employer of labor. It is said of him that he has never yet been defeated for a political office which he has sought. His public career has been of the most active character. He has been a member of the City Council for some years and is now chairman of the finance committee. He has served Vancouver as a school trustee, as a parks commissioner and as a police commissioner. He is a Presbyterian and is an elder of his church. His wife was Miss Winnifred Maclellan, a Nova Scotian lady, who is the mother of two sons and three daughters.

Capt. Ian Mackenzie

Capt. Ian Mackenzie was born in Sutherlandshire, Scotland, and is president of the Vancouver G.W.V.A. He is a Highlander, and proud of it. Capt. Mackenzie, G.W.V.A. president, is a graduate of Edinburgh University, with the degree of LL.B. and M.A. He graduated with double honors in classics, after a very brilliant university career. In addition to his Edinburgh training, he also spent two years in research work in Ireland, studying Celtic languages and literature. He was given three medals in the university, and won first prize for his year in constitutional law and history. He was called to the bar in March, 1914, and came to Vancouver on the eve of the great war.

Scion of a race that never faltered when there was fighting to be done, it was but natural that the young lawyer newly arrived in Vancouver should volunteer his services to the Motherland at the call to arms, and in 1915 saw him in the C.E.F. He joined the 72nd Highlanders of Vancouver. He went into the 72nd with a commission, a post for which he was well equipped, not only by passing the officers' training course in British Columbia, but by reason of having spent three years in the ranks in the officers' training corps at Edinburgh University. He remained with the 72nd until 1917, when he was transferred to the Railway Troops, and gained distinction in this service, being specially mentioned in dispatches.

Ten days after the Armistice had been declared, the young officer was recalled to Scotland by Ian Macpherson, to assist in the coalition election which sustained Lloyd George as premier of Great Britain. Comrade Mackenzie's part in that election consisted of a speaking tour in the Western Islands off the coast of Scotland. There are between ten and fifteen of these islands, all of which he visited, speaking in both Gaelic and English. Previously he had spoken in Scotland for the National Insurance Act. He returned to Vancouver in 1919.

He returned to Vancouver in 1919.

SAANICH VOTERS RETURN PAULINE

M. B. Jackson, K.C.; R. H. Pooley and Kenneth Duncan, All Re-elected

After a strenuous, close fight, the Oliver Government carried the Saanich constituency yesterday by the election of F. A. Pauline, veteran Government supporter. As was expected, Esquimalt went Conservative as it has done for years, with the re-election of R. H. Pooley, but M. B. Jackson, K.C., Government candidate, triumphed in The Islands. In Cowichan Kenneth Duncan, Indechoice of Saanich voters remained in doubt until the very last, Mr. Pauline and M. B. Jackson, Opposition candidate, running neck and neck during the counting of the ballots. To the surprise of many observers, Capt. Orford, candidate of the Soldier-Labor-Party, continued a close third all through and finished only a few hundred votes below Mr. Gordon. The Opposition candidate gained a good deal of strength it is thought by the rumor, given much credence, that he was slated for a portfolio in the Bowser Cabinet should his party be returned. The details by polling places are:—

Saanich District.

Mr. Pooley Triumphs.

In Esquimalt it was obvious from the start that Mr. Pooley would carry his constituency again. Neither Mr. Helgesen, Government candidate, nor Capt. Gadsden, candidate of the Soldier-Farmer-Labor Party, had a chance of election.

The details by polling places are:—

Esquimalt District		Pooley	Helgesen	Gadsden
Pooley	644	371	356
Helgesen	25	9	2
